NF boys' golf returns seven lettermen

By Jerry Wadian
Union Sports Writer

Last year the North Fayette boys' golf team featured a young squad with some potential.

This year, they return seven lettermen and, according to head coach Greg James, "We hope to be in the top three."

Once again teams in the UIC should be chasing Sumner-Fredericksburg and Clayton Ridge. Last year at the conference meet, S-F and CR tied at 324. The Cougars were declared the winners when their number-five golfer finished higher than CR's. The bad news for UIC competitors is that S-F returns almost its entire team; the Eagles have lost a couple of good golfers.

North Fayette was fifth, just five strokes away from third place. The Hawks had three All-Conference performers.

Luke Johansen and Jake Grafenberg shot identical rounds of 83 and Tom Moser carded an 84 to finish in the top 15 and become All-UIC.

For the season, Johansen averaged 42.6, Moser had a 44.9 average, and Grafenberg averaged 46.1.

The other four returning lettermen are Scott Schroeder, who averaged 45.3 last year; Ryan Pleggenkuhle, 47.9; Pete Shea, 49.1; and Zach Bodensteiner, 50.2.

Coach James believes that his team is quite capable of lowering last year's scores. "All they have to do is get rid of that one disaster round they each had, and the scores would fall."

James went on to add, "These kids work hard, which almost always means improvement."

The lettermen had better be working and improving, because there are a lot of underclassmen ready to step up.

All of the Hawks have their collective sights set on a top-three finish in the conference and moving on to State competition.

Last year, NF was sixth in Sectional action. Johansen fired a season-low 38 on the back nine to finish with an 83, just three strokes off advancing to Districts.

The outlook this year is pretty bright, with seven lettermen and nine other golfers able to push the veterans.

All Coach James and his golfers need now is "hit warmer weather, so we can actually get on the course for some practice."

READY TO MOVE UP — With seven lettermen and a number of boys with JV experience, the NF boys' golf team is ready to move up to the top of the UIC. Playing for the Hawks this year are (front, l-r) lettermen Scott Schroeder, Jake Grafenberg, and Lucas Johansen; (row two) Zach Bodensteiner, Tom Moser, Luke Shea, and Ryan Pleggenkuhle; (row three) nonlettermen Santee Bassett, Shann Birch, Matt Brubaker, and Thomas Story; (back) Dylan Langerman-Aven, Tyler Starks, Shane Baumber, Will O'Laughlin, and Tyler Thoms.

Grafenberg is medalist; NF wins

Jake Grafenberg tied for medalist honors in Monday's opening to the NF golf season.

The North Fayette boys made it a successful first day, as they handily defeated South Winn, 178-193, at Country Hills in West Union.

Grafenberg's stellar round of 42 tied him with the Warriors' Matthew Phillips.

Scott Schroeder was next in line for NF with a 44. Rounding out the varsity scoring was Lucas Johansen, 45, and Zach Bodensteiner, 47.

The Hawk JV made it a clean sweep, downing SW, 218-247.

Tyler Starks led the JV with a 52. Pete Shea was right on his heels with a 53. Also scoring for the JV were Dylan Langerman-Aten, 56, and Shann Birth, 57.

Tom Moser shot a 42 vs Central.

NF boys' golf topples TV

Johansen medals with a 41

The North Fayette boys' golf team beat Turkey Valley, 177-185, Monday night at Country Hills in West Union.

Earlier in the week, the Hawks lost road contests at Central/Elkader on Tuesday and to Sumner-Fredericksburg, but beat Clayton Ridge in a triangular on Friday.

Monday night, Luke Johansen was medalist with a sparkling 41. Scott Schroeder was runner-up with a 44.

Jake Grafenberg, 45, and Ryan Pleggenkuhle, 47, rounded out the varsity scoring.

Friday at Sumner, Grafenberg led the Hawks with a 42. Johansen and Schroeder each carded a 45, and Zach Bodensteiner shot a 47 to finish in the varsity.

NF shot a 179, but the Cougars won with a 157, and the Eagles came in at 164.

Tuesday's match at Elkader belonged to the Warriors, 161-172.

Tom Moser and Johansen led NF with rounds of 42. Grafenberg and Schroeder were right behind with 44 apiece.

After Monday, the Hawks' varsity record stands at 2-1 in duals.

NF boys golf falls to 1-3

After opening the season with a win, the North Fayette boys golf team had lost 3 straight. On Tuesday at Elkader, the boys lost to Central 161-172. Lucas Johansen and Tom Moser each shot a 42 while Jake Grafenberg and Scott Schroeder each shot a 44.

At Sumner on Friday the boys shot a 179 vs Sumner-Fredericksburg 157 and Clayton Ridge 164. Grafenberg led the Hawks with a 42, followed by Johansen 45, Schroeder 45 and Zach Bodensteiner 47.

CR tops boys' UIC golf;

The 2007 UIC Golf Tournament Monday night at Big Rock Country Club in Fayette was played under the threat of stormy weather. Fortunately, the predictions of thunderstorms did not come to pass, and the golfers completed the 18-hole tournament wind-blown but dry.

Clayton Ridge pulled off the upset in the boys' tournament, dethroning Sumner-Fredericksburg by one stroke.

South Winn won by four strokes over Turkey Valley in the girls' tourney.

Valley's Thomas Guyer earned medalist honors in the boys' tourney, firing a 72. He was five strokes ahead of runner-up Justin Ertl of CR.

Thomas Klann was the second Valley golfer to earn All-UIC honors, finishing in a tie for ninth with an 81. As a team, Valley was fourth with a 342.

No one from North Fayette was able to capture All-Conference honors. The Hawks tied for sixth with South Winn at 356.

Clayton Ridge had scores of 77, 78, 81, and 82. The Cougars shot 78, 80, 80, 81.

JUST A LITTLE MORE PRACTICE – UIC golfers crowd the putting green at Big Rock Country Club prior to the start of the conference golf meet on Monday morning. When the dust settled, Clayton Ridge won the boys' title by a stroke, while South Winn won the girls' title by four strokes. (UIC Golf photos by Mike Van Sickle)

HOPEFUL HAWKS - The North Fayette boys' golf team smiled hopefully for the camera prior to the start of conference play. After finishing fourth, they are now looking ahead to Sectional play at Backbone this Friday. Golfing for NF Monday were (l-r) Scott Schroeder, Zach Bodensteiner, Jake Grafenberg, Lucas Johansen, Tom Moser, and Ryan Pleggenkuhle.

Hawk boys' golf goes to Backbone for Sectionals

The North Fayette boys' golf team will be traveling to Backbone Golf and Country Club in Strawberry Point for its Class 2A Sectionals on Friday, May 11.

The top two teams will travel to Gates Park in Waterloo to play in the District final, hosted by Waterloo Columbus.

Competing in the eight-team Sectional against North Fayette will be host Starmont, along with Clayton Ridge, MFL/MM, Nashua-Plainfield, North Butler, South Winn, and Sumner-Fredricksburg.

The Hawks ended the regular season last week with two home meets against Oelwein and MFL/MM at Country Hills.

Thursday, Oelwein handed the Hawks a 167-193 loss.

On Friday, however, the boys bounced back on a rainy afternoon, beating MFL/MM, 170-191.

Luke Johansen medaled, shooting a four-over-par 40. Teammate Scott Schroeder earned runner-up by shooting a Wulfekuhle rounded out the varsity scoring by shooting identical 44s.

Against Oelwein, Johansen shot a team-best 42. He birdied No. 5 and scored par on Nos. 1, 3, and 8.

Grafenberg and Ryan Pleggenkuhle both shot 50, while Zach Bodensteiner shot a 51 to close out the varsity scoring.

Efforts by Horn, Johnson can't save NF golf teams

Efforts by Sara Horn and Luke Johansen couldn't save the North Fayette golf teams in tourney action Monday as the Hawk girls and boys were eliminated from further play.

Horn fired a 49-47-96 at District play held at Big Rock Country Club in Fayette. She fell three shots short of qualifying for Regional action.

SW's Abbie Holien was medalist with a 44-46-90.

As a team the NF gals were sixth in the eight-team field with 438

The NF boys were at the Starmont Sectional and placed third as a team with 333 points. Only two teams advance to District.

Sumner-Fredricksburg carded 310 strokes; Clayton Ridge totaled 325.

Johansen fired a 38-40-78 to lead the Hawks and just missed a chance to go to District as one of the top four.

Medalist Owen Teeling of Sumner carded a 38-37-75. The cutoff was 77.

Following are the other

NF scores and team result from each meet:

NF Girls (438)- Hilary O'Brien, 56-51-113; Amanda Bruso, 58-57-115; Moni Van Horn, 55-59-114; Brittany Campbe 62-78-140; Lisa Scott, 61-62-123.
