NORTH FAYETTE VALLEY BOYS' GOLF 2015 FACTS

2014 UIC- 2nd

2014 GRADUATES: Brady Guyer, Dalton Lape, Brady Ney, Noah Larson, Steven Williams, and Lincoln Johansen.

2014 POSTSEASON HONORS: All-UIC: Jensen & Bemiss, with Bemiss also having experience in District play.

RETURNING LETTERWINNERS- Brian Jensen, Kedrick Bemiss, Chase Hollinrake, and Noah Koch.

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH- According to head coach Derek Heins, "Jordan Baumler seems to be the top freshman, while Trystan Riley, Phil Kleve, Trevor Massman, and Russell Pleggenkuhle are seniors with the potential to break into the lineup."

NFV OUTLOOK- The TigerHawks are back in Class 2A.

this season after a year in Class 3A. The boys have 23 golfers out this season, including five seniors, five juniors, five sophomores and eight freshmen. Heins said, "I am pleased with the returning letterwinners and look to them for leadership. We hope to make a run in the postseason, but we will need some newcomers to step up and fill the final varsity spots."

UIC OUTLOOK- Heins commented, "Hopefully we'll be in the hunt with South Winn. The UIC is at Guttenberg, so Clayton Ridge could make a strong showing."

Coach's Keys to the Season- According to Heins, "Since it is back to 2A, I am looking forward to some postseason success."

North Fayette Valley has 23 young men out for golf this season. With four returning letterwinners and some promising newcomers, the TigerHawks hope to make a run in the Class 2A playoffs. NFV boys' golf 3rd at Waverly

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The TigerHawk boys finally opened the season Monday, April 13, at their new home course in Clermont.

Later in the week, NFV lost to South Winn in Ossian, and Saturday the TigerHawks finished a very respectable third in the Go-Hawk Invitational in Waverly against a field of 12 teams, including a number of schools from Classes 3A and 4A.

Monday wasn't really a meet since Postville only had two varsity golfers. However, the TigerHawks shot well as the varsity fired a 178, while the JV came in with a 211.

Kedrick Bemiss was medalist with a 40, including a birdie on no. 4 and three holes of par.

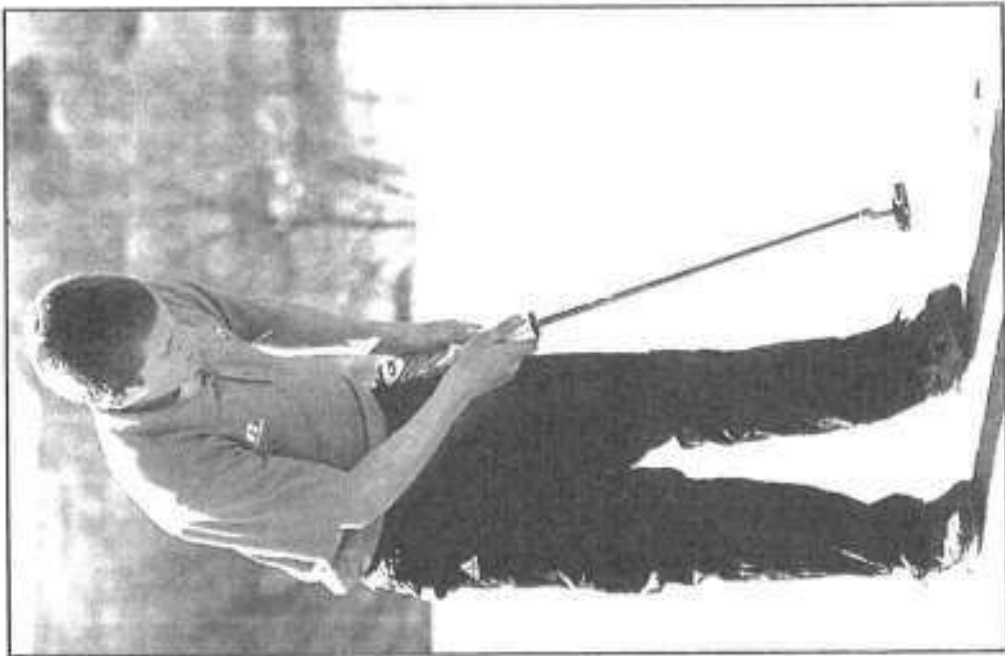

Trystan Riley was runner-up with his round of 45; he made Par three times.

The other two varsity scorers were Chase Hollinrake (46) and Noah Koch (47).

Derek Thoms led the JV with a round of 51. Trevor Massman was right behind with a 52. Derek Elsbernd (53) and Spencer Heyer (55) also scored for the JV.

In all, the top eight TigerHawks hit one birdie and made Par 14 times.

Thursday at Silver Springs in Ossian, NFV shot even better, hitting 175, but lost to a powerful SW squad that used its home-course advantage (four of the top five golfers live in Ossian) to finish at 155. All four Warrior golfers scored between 37-40; Logan Schweinefus medaled with a 37.

Once again, Bemiss led the TigerHawks with a 40. Koch was next at 44, and Hollinrake (45) and Phil Kleve (46) completed the varsity scoring.

The TigerHawk JV defeated its SW counterparts, 192-200. Jordan Baumler led the JV with his 47. Trevor Massman (47), Derek Elsbernd (48) and Brian Jensen (49) were the other scorers for NFV.

Also golfing for the TigerHawks were Spencer Heyer (51), Derek Thoms (53), and William Miller (57).

Saturday, the TigerHawks shot a 228 at the Go-Hawk Invitational in Waverly.

Bemiss finished ninth in the individual races with an 18-hole total of 79. Brian Jensen (83), Hollinrake (86), Koch (90), Kleve (94), and Riley (98) all contributed to the TigerHawks' third-place finish.

Once the week was over, head coach Derek Heins noted, "I am pleased with the progress we made this week in practice.

The results started to show on Saturday. We just need to continue down the path that we're on, and we'll be in good shape for the postseason."

NFV boys golf wins 2 in UIC

By Jerry Wadlan

jwadlan@thefayettecountyunion.com

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team wracked up a pair of big wins in the UIC last week, beating Ed-Co and Turkey Valley. Saturday, the TigerHawks finished third at an 18-hole tourney in New Hampton.

Monday, April 20, the boys beat Ed-Co at Pleasant Valley Sports Club, 180-193.

All head coach Derek Heins could say afterwards was, Brrrr! After his team had to deal with high winds, cold temperatures and water on the course.

The athletes didn't let any of that deter them as Kedrick Bemiss conquered the course with a medalist round of 42. Chase Hollinrake and Brian Jensen each shot a 45. Noah Koch's 48 completed the varsity scoring.

Also representing the varsity were Trystan Riley (50) and Trevo Massman (54).

The Tiger Hawk JV also beat the Vikings, 225-244.

William Miller and Spencer Heyer led the JV with rounds of 55, two strokes better than the leading Viking. Jordan Baumler (56) and Chance Meyer (59) were the other two scorers for the JV.

Also golfing for NFV were Kyle Nosbisch and Chase Hailberg.

Heins stated, "The scores were decent considering the conditions. It's always good to get a meet in these types of conditions just in case conference or sectionals end up being in similar conditions."

Thursday in Jackson Junction, the winds were there, but nowhere near the 40-50 mph gale-level of Monday.

The TigerHawks ended the day 24 strokes ahead of Turkey Valley, 163-187.

Bemiss and Hollinrake blistered the course with rounds of 38 to share medalist honors. Jensen carded a 43 and Riley carded a 44 to score for the varsity.

Also shooting for the varsity was Koch (47) Phil Kleve (48).

The JV shot a 208, but the Trojans were not able to field a full JV squad.

For NFV, Baumler led the junior TigerHawks with his 46. Derek Thoms fired a 48, Massman shot a 53 and Derek Elsbernd came in with a 55 to complete the JV scoring.

Heins commented, "It was a nice evening for a meet. We had several players start slowly but come on with strong finishes. This should be a good meet to build on for the next couple of weeks leading up to the tournaments."

Saturday's tourney was played on a cold, windy day with the threat of rain throughout the tourney.

The field was loaded with quality teams. Both the winning Denver and runner-up South Winn squads are in NFV's sectional. The top four TigerHawks combined for a 344 and third place.

Hollinrake led the TigerHawks with a 43-38-81. Bemiss struggled a bit on the front nine, but came back to record a 43-40-83. Koch carded a 46-43-89, and Jensen finished the scoring with a 45-46-91. Kleve and Riley also shot in the tourney.

Heins commented, "Hollinrake came back with a solid 38 on the back nine and while Bemiss did not have his best day, he still stuck in there with a decent finish."

As for the playoffs which start Friday, May 15, Heins said, "With Denver, SW, and A-P all in our sectional, along with a good team from A-P, we have our work cut out for us. While it's never easy to make districts or state, it isn't out of our reach. We need to work on our wedge play and short games, limit the big numbers on a hole and the scores will come down."

TigerHawk boys' golf splits

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team split a pair of matches last week, losing to a solid Starmont squad on Monday, April 27, but rebounding to beat West Central on Thursday.

"It wasn't our best night," admitted NFV head coach Derek Heins after his squad dropped a 171-181 decision to visiting Starmont. The JV also lost, 192-212 to the Stars.

According to Heins, "The Stars have a solid team, but we struggled."

Kédrick Bemiss was medalist with a nice round of 39, two strokes better than runner-up Ian Goedken of Starmont.

Chase Hollinrake got off to a rough start, but rallied to hit par on four of the final five holes to card a 46.

Noah Koch was a stroke behind at 47, and Brian Jensen shot a 49 for the varsity.

Derek Thoms led the JV with his 50. Trevor Massman followed with a 52, and William Miller and Croy Schott notched rounds of 55.

Thursday's meet at Big Rock Country Club in Fayette showed what the TigerHawks can do when they all play well, carding a 162 to beat West Central by 28 strokes.

Heins noted, "This should be a good one for their confidence before the final two home meets next week and the UIC and Sectional the following week."

Bemiss was medalist with a 37 that included holing out from 70 yards out for a birdie three on no. 5!

Koch had his season-best night, coming in with a 41 to earn medalist runner-up honors.

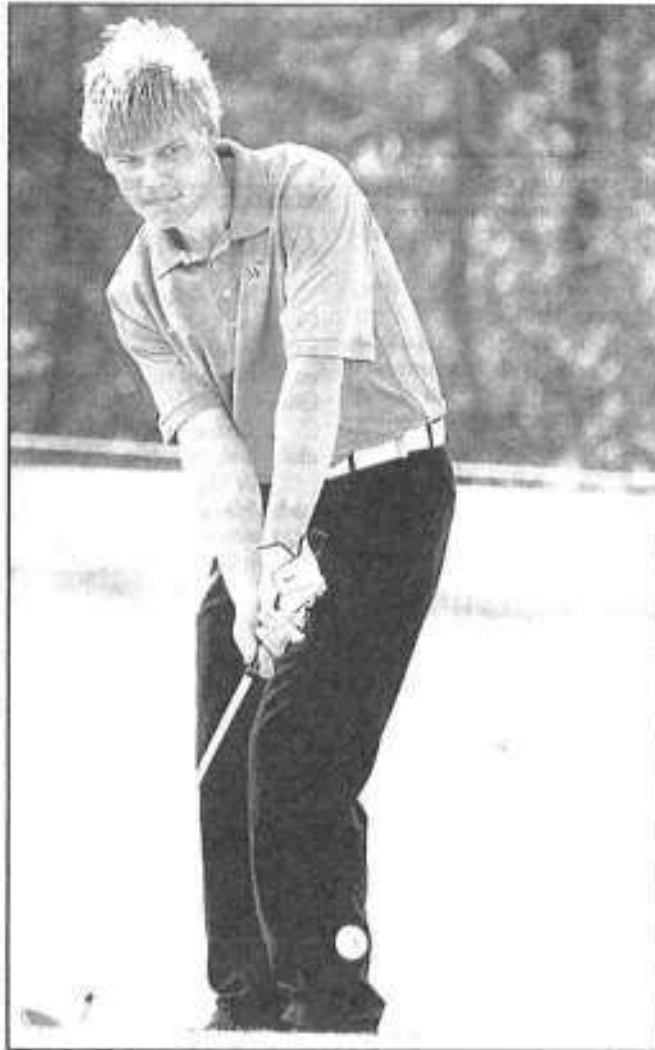

Hollinrake and Jensen both shot well, each finishing with a score of 42.

Also shooting for NFV's varsity were Trystan Riley (47), Thoms (48), Phil Kleve (49), and Massman (51).

The TigerHawk JV combined for a 194 while playing the back nine. The Blue Devils do not have a JV team.

Derek Elsbend led the junior TigerHawks with his 44, including a birdie on no. 13. Jordan Baumler also shot well with a 46. Spencer Heyer (49) and Russell Pleggenkuhle (55) completed the JV scoring.

NFV faces tough golf Sectional

By Jerry Wadian jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The North Fayette boys' golf team will face some stiff competition at the Class 2A Sectional Golf Meet Friday, May 15, in Aplington.

Only the top two teams (three, if the home team is one of the top teams) and four lowest individual scores are allowed to move on to District action the next Friday in Dike.

Of the eight teams attempting to qualify, five are ranked, which means a number of good teams will go home disappointed.

Host A-P opened the polls last week in third place. Denver (fourth), SW (sixth), Columbus (seventh), and Sumner-Fredericksburg (18th) are the five ranked squads.

NFV head coach Derek Heins acknowledged the toughness of the challenge, but stated, "Going to Districts is not out of our reach. When we're on, we're a pretty good team. We have to all play well at the same time."

UIC titles up for grabs

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The Upper Iowa Conference will crown its track and golf champions Thursday, May 7, and Monday, May 11, respectively.

UIC track will be in West Union with West Central hosting. In the girls' meet, Clayton Ridge and Central/Elkader look to be the favorites.

NFV head coach Mark Nuss said, "South Winn and Turkey Valley could do well, and hopefully we'll be able to contend as well, particularly with some of our injured people starting to return."

In regard to the boys' meet, Nuss stated, "Last week we looked really strong, but with some injuries we will not score like we have been. We may even hold some kids out so we can be healthy for the State Qualifying Meet on May 14."

As for other teams, Nuss noted, "South Winn will have a strong team, and Clayton Ridge and Central have very good athletes that will enter into the spread of points."

Field events start at 3:30 p.m., with running events beginning at 4 p.m. Admission is $5.

UIC golf will be split into two sites with both meets teeing off at 9 a.m. on May 11.

The boys will compete in Guttenberg. SW is the only ranked team in the field, and Starmont and Clayton Ridge are both solid. NFV coach Derek Heins wants to compete for a top two-spot.

The girls will golf in Luana. The TigerHawks are ranked third in Class 3A and would appear to be the favorite.

In both boys' and girls' competition, the top 15 golfers will earn All-Conference honors.

The North Fayette boys' golf team finished fourth at the UIC Meet Monday, May 11, in Guttenberg.

It was a brutal day for golf with the temperatures in the low 50s to start the day and ending in the high 40s with strong winds buffeting the course high on the bluffs over the city.

Four of the six TigerHawk golfers qualified for All-UIC honors after finishing in the top 15.

Brian Jensen was third in a talented field of 55 golfers with his 18-hole total of 80.

Chase Hollinrake tied for 10th, and Noah Koch and Kedrick Bemiss also made All-UIC when they finished in a seven-way tie for 15th.

The team finished two strokes behind Clayton Ridge and five behind Starmont. South Winn blew away the field with a 322 as six golfers made All-Conference.

Tournament director Kris Einck commented afterwards, "I want to mention how impressed I was with all of the golfers and coaches. They were a great bunch to work with."

NFV boys 6th in 'monster Sectional'

By Jerry Wadlan

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team faced a daunting task Friday, May 15, in Parkersburg as it faced what head coach Derek Heins called "a monster Sectional."

Of the eight teams, six were ranked in the top 21 in the state; in fact, four were ranked in the top seven! In all, there were 18 individuals in the top 64 in the state with seven ranked in the top 20.

Sadly, only two teams, three if the home team qualified, and the four best individuals could advance to the District Tournament Friday, May 22, in Dike.

The TigerHawks shot a combined 345 to place sixth, eight strokes ahead of Sumner-Fredericksburg, which was ranked 21st.

Host A-P showed why it came in as the top-ranked team in Class 2A, firing a 303 to win. Columbus, ranked seventh, was second with 308, and third-ranked South Winn also advanced with a 310.

Denver (fifth) and Dike-New Hartford (11th) were the other ranked teams not to advance.

Kedrick Bemiss led NFV. Like most of the TigerHawks, he struggled on the front nine with a 41, but recovered to fire a 37 on the back nine for a 78, three strokes off the cut, to advance as an individual.

Heins explained, "We didn't all have our best stuff, but I was pleased with how we rebounded from some struggles on the first nine holes."

Heins said of Phil Kleve, "He played his best golf of the season." The senior had a 45-42-87 to place second on the team.

Brian Jensen (46-43-89), Chase Hollinrake (48-43-91), Trystan Riley (47-50-97), and Noah Koch (52-47-99) completed the scoring effort for the TigerHawks.

Afterwards, Heins noted, "Overall, it was a good season. We made a lot of progress, and I look forward to next year with the core group of golfers we have coming back."

Team Results

1. A-P, 303; 2. Columbus, 308; 3. SW, 310; 4. Denver, 316; 5. Dike-New Hartford, 322; 6. NFV, 345; 7. Hudson, 346; 8. Sumn.-Fred., 353.
