NORTH FAYETTE VALLEY BOYS' GOLF 2016 FACTS

2015 UIC- 2nd
2015 Graduates: Brian Jensen, Phil Kieve, Trystian Riley, and Trevor Massman
Returning Letterwinners- Kedrick Bemiss, Chase Hollinrake, and Noah Koch
Newcomers to watch- According to head coach Derek Heins, "Seniors Derek Eisbernd and Derek Thoms have been solid JV performers and will hopefully step up their games to the varsity level. Sophomore Jordan Baumler is a sophomore with JV experience, and freshman Colin Gavin has shown potential."
Postseason Honors: All-UIC: Bemiss, Hollinrake and Koch.
NFV Outlook- "I am pleased with the returning letterwinners and look to them for leadership," stated Heins. "We are hosting Sectional on Friday, May 13, so hopefully our home course will prove to be an advantage in a tough field."
UIC Outlook- NFV has claimed the runner-up spot in the UIC for the past two seasons. Heins commented, "South Winn returns a strong team from their appearance at the State Golf Meet last year. If our guys put in the time and see some improvement, we can give SW a run." The UIC this year will be hosted by Turkey Valley on Monday, May 9, in Jackson Junction.
Coach's Keys to the Season- According to Heins, "We will rely heavily on our three letterwinners and look to Gavin and some experienced JV players stepping up to fill the top six spots."

North Fayette Valley boys' golf has some quality golfers returning and the numbers in the underclassmen to have good teams for several years. Representing the TigerHawk boys during the 2016 season will be (front, l-r) Kedrick Bemiss, Chase Hollinrake, Noah Koch, Derek Thoms, Colin Gavin, Derek Eisbernd, Jordan Baumler and head coach Derek Heins; (back) William Miller, Kyle Nosbisch, Lukas Olson, Jacob Leuchtenmacher, John McIaggart, Croy Schott, Spenser Schmitt, Chance Meyer, Brandon Busari-Okoro, Hunter Tripp, and Zachary Schroeder. (Not pictured are Chase Hallberg and Drew Berger. (Jery Madlan photo)

NFV boys beat Central

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team opened its 2016 season Thursday with a road win in Elkader. The TigerHawks beat Central, 171-190, in the cold and wind at the Elkader Country Club.

Kedrick Bemiss and Chase Hollinrake led the way with medalist and medalist runner-up rounds of 38 and 40, respectively. Also scoring for the varsity were Jordan Baumler (46) and Colin Gavin (47). Derek Elsbernd (48) and Derek Thoms (52) also shot for the varsity.

John McTaggart led the JV with a 47 as the young TigerHawks came in at 209; Central did not have a JV squad. Kyle Nosbisch, William Miller, and Croy Schott all came in with rounds of 47 for the JV. Spenser Schmitt and Zach Schroeder also golfed for the JV.

Despite the wind, four NFV golfers recorded birdies as Baumler and Bemiss (no. 5), Hollinrake (no. 7), and McTaggart (no. 4) each came in a shot under par.

NFV opens the home season next Thursday against defending UIC champion South Winn at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

NFV boys' golf splits in UIC

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayetcountyunion.com

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team split a pair of UIC matches last week, beating Postville on the road, but losing to South Winn, one of the top teams in Class 2A at home.

Saturday, the boys were missing two key veterans at a tournament in Waverly. Noah Koch was out sick all week, and Chase Hollinrake came up sick Saturday as NFV finished fifth.

Monday (April 11), the TigerHawk boys knocked off Postville, 165-248.

With the wind blowing up to 30 mph, Kedrick Bemiss was the medalist with a 4-over 38.

Colin Gavin was two strokes behind at 40 to earn medalist runner-up honors. The freshman had the only par of the day with a 2 on hole no. 7.

Also carding for the varsity were Derek Thoms (43) and Chase Hollinrake at 44.

Jordan Baumber (45) and Derek Elsbernd (53) also golfed for the varsity.

Meanwhile, the NFV JV shot outshot the Postville varsity, posting a 217. William Miller (51), Croy Schott (53), Kyle Nosbisch (54) and Jacob Leuchtenmacher (59) shot for the JV.

Thursday, the TigerHawks picked a bad time to have one of their poorer showings of the season as they lost to powerhouse SW, 159-182, at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

Bemiss fired a 2-over round of 38 that included a birdie on no. 4 and five holes meeting par.

However, his round was only good for third overall as SW's Anthony Emmanuel (35) and Logan Schweinefuss (37) took medalist and medalist runner-up honors, respectively.

Elsbernd, Gavin, and Thoms rounded out the NFV varsity scoring with all three shooting a round of 48.

Also golfing for the TigerHawks were Hollinrake (50), Baumber (54), Leuchtenmacher (55), and Miller and Schott (56).

Saturday, NFV finished fifth in an 11-team field. West Delaware won the 18-hole tourney with a 308, while the TigerHawks carded a 345.

Bemiss finished tied for second with a sparkling round of 74 that included a birdie on a nice little chip shot.

Elsbernd shot an 87, while Baumber and Thoms completed the varsity scoring with identical scores of 92.

Kedrick Bemiss watches his tee shot sail down the course in NFV's home opener Thursday at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont. The TigerHawk senior was the team leader in both UIC meets last week with identical scores of 38. Saturday at the tournament in Waverly, he tied for runner-up in the 18-hole tourney with a 74. Chase Hollinrake watches this chip shot roll onto the green, setting up an easy putt during recent action at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont. Last week, the junior was the medalist Thursday with a 39 against Turkey Valley. He led the team Monday (April 18) against Ed-Co with a 45; Saturday, he finished fifth at the prestigious golf tournament in New Hampton, carding a 37-43-80 as he golfed in a foursome that included the number-one golfers from three area teams. Koch medalist at New Hampton

Boys card well at golf tourney

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@fayettepublishing.com

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team split a pair of UIC games last week and finished fourth in Saturday's tourney in New Hampton, with Noah Koch shooting a 78 to win the tournament.

Saturday's tournament featured some very good teams and individuals.

Koch shot a 42 on the first nine holes and fired his first-ever nine-hole round of par at 36 on the backside for a total of 78.

According to head coach Derek Heins, "In the absence of Kedrick Bemiss and Colin Gavin, Chase Hollinrake, Derek Thoms and Koch really stepped up their game! I am really happy to see some of the good individual scores, especially against some State-caliber competition."

Hollinrake was paired with the number-one golfers of three different teams, and held his own with a 37 on the first nine and 43 on the back nine for a 80 and a tie for fifth overall.

Thoms also played his best game of the season coming in with an 89. Others golfing for the TigerHawks were Derek Elsbernd (97), Croy Schott (100), and Jordan Baumler (111).

Afterwards, Heins commented, "Hopefully, we can build on this good outing as we close in on the conference meet and sectionals."

Thursday, the boys' shot an excellent 162 on the home course at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont. The total was enough to beat visiting Turkey Valley, which came in with a 285.

Hollinrake hit par on six of the nine holes to earn medalist honors for NFV with a 39.

Bemiss was medalist runner-up with a round of 40 that included five holes of par.

Colin Gavin is the picture of concentration as he watches this short putt roll into the hole. The NFV freshman has been a consistent varsity scorer this year; Thursday against Turkey Valley, he had the only TigerHawk birdie on his way to a round of 42. (Jerry Wadian photo)

Koch made par four times to card a 41. Gavin had the only NFV birdie, shooting a 3 on no. 2; his 42 completed the varsity scoring.

Also shooting for the TigerHawks were Elsbernd (44), Thoms (49), and Baumler (54).

The JV score of 218 was also low enough to beat the Trojans. Schott's 51 led the junior TigerHawks. William Miller (54), Jacob Leuchtenmacher (56), and Kyle Nosbisch (57) were the other JV scorers. Zach Schroeder (66) also golfed with the JV. Baumler and Nosbisch were the only JV golfers to hit par on a hole.

Monday (April 18) the boys suffered a rare defeat, falling to Ed-Co, 173-180, at Woods Edge in Edgewood.

Bemiss led the TigerHawks with a 39, tying with the Vikings' Ethan Streicher for medalist honors. Bemiss' round of 39 included five rounds of par (including four in a row on holes 2 through 5; he also had a birdie on no. 6.

Hollinrake had three parred holes on his way to a 45. Koch and Gavin each carded a 48. Koch made par on 9, and Gavin birdied no. 4.

Also shooting for the varsity were Baumler (55), Miller and Nosbisch (56), and Schott (59).

NFV boys' golf adds 2 wins

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team added two more wins to its record last week.

Monday (April 25), the TigerHawks beat host Starmont, 160-174.

Despite the double bogeys taken by Kedrick Bemiss and Chase Hollinrake on no. 2, the duo rallied to earn medalist and medalist runner-up honors, respectively.

Bemiss continued his run of low scores with a 38. Hollinrake was a shot behind at 39. Other than no. 2, Bemiss hit par on the other eight holes, and Hollinrake birdied no. 4 and made par on five holes.

Colin Gavin hit par on the first two holes and the final four holes to shoot a 40.

Noah Koch was the fourth varsity scorer, hitting a 43; he made par on three consecutive holes.

Derek Thoms (48) and Jordan Baumler (54) were the other TigerHawk varsity golfers.

The JV was outshot by the Stars, 197-219. Croy Schott led the JV with a 52. William Miller (53) and Kyle Nosbisch (54) were close behind, and Jacob Leuchtenmacher was the fourth scorer with a 60. Also shooting for the JV were Chance Meyer (65), Zach Schroeder (68), and Hunter Tripp (75).

Thursday was the last home meet of the regular season for the boys at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont, where the TigerHawks downed West Central, 168-190.

Head coach Derek Heins commented: "The wind, rain and cold temperatures didn't make the ideal conditions, but it was a good test to learn how to focus when you're wet and cold. A 168 is a fine team score in good conditions, so I'm very pleased they were able to shoot that in some of the worst weather this year. It's a good step toward the postseason, where the weather may not cooperate."

Despite the weather, Bemiss carded a medalist round of 40, including five pars. Hollinrake birdied no. 4 as he shot a 41 for medalist runner-up honors. Noah Koch made four pars during his round of 42, and Thoms broke into the list of scorers with his 45; he made par twice in the round. Elsbernd (45) and Gavin (46) also had nice rounds in the terrible conditions.

The JV shot a 211, with Nosbisch being medalist with his 49. Schott came in at 52, Jordan at 54, and Meyer at 56. Also golfing for NFV were Miller, Leuchtenmacher, Schroeder, and Tripp.

TH boys' golf ends regular season

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

North Fayette Valley's boys' golf team ended its regular season with a pair of road wins last week.

Chase Hollinrake led the TigerHawks with a scintillating 35 in the TigerHawks' eight-stroke win, 163-171, over Clayton Ridge, Monday (May 2) in Guttenberg.

Hollinrake's round included birdies on hole nos. 2, 3, and 7; he also made par on four holes.

Kedrick Bemiss and Noah Koch tied for second on the team with rounds of 41; both golfers shot par four times.

Colin Gavin completed the varsity scoring with a 46 that included a par on no. 4 and a birdie on no. 2.

Derek Thoms and Derek Elsbernd came in with rounds of 47 and 48, respectively.

The JV lost to the Eagles, 206-223.

Jordan Baumler hit par on no. 9 to pace the JV with his 53. Croy Schott (54), Kyle Nosbisch (55) and Jacob Leuchtenmacher (61) provided the rest of the JV scoring. Chance Meyer and William Miller also golfed for the junior TigerHawks.

Heins said afterwards, "It was a great night for golf on a tough course. Hollinrake got off to a hot start and finished well.

"We need to put in the time from here on out, especially on our short game, as we try to keep building to the UIC and Sectionals."

The season ended Thursday with a 164-184 victory over MFL/MM in Luana.

Bemiss led the TigerHawks with a 40, good for medalist runner-up; the senior nailed a birdie on no. 7.

Koch shot four rounds of par in carding a 41. Elsbernd had his best round of the season in matching Koch's 41. Hollinrake fired a 42 to be the fourth varsity scorer.

Gavin (44) and Thoms (45) shot well but not enough for varsity scores.

The NFV JV also notched a win, beating the Bulldogs, 197-265. Miller led the way with a season-best 46.

Schott (48), Nosbisch (50), and Baumler (53) completed the winning team score. Leuchtenmacher (57) and Zachary Schroeder also represented the TigerHawks.

Heins commented, "We had pretty good scores all around, including the JV. While we shot one stroke better than the last time we were here, I think some of the guys still had a hard time with the small, quick greens.

NFV boys to host Sectional golf

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

North Fayette Valley will be hosting one of the boys' Class 2A Sectional Golf Tournaments Friday at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

Other teams competing will be Beckman, Clayton Ridge, Jesup, Maq. Valley, MFL/MM, Oelwein and South Winn.

SW may be the biggest hurdle for the 20th-ranked TigerHawks. The Warriors return three of their top four golfers from last year's State-Qualifying squad.

Beckman is the other ranked team at 24th in the last poll.

The top two teams, three if NFV is in the top two, and top five individual golfers will be able to advance to District play in at Pleasant Valley in Iowa City on Thursday, May 19.

Teams in the other two brackets include Camanche, Cascade, Monticello, North Cedar, NE Goose Lake, Iowa City Regina, Tipton, West Branch, Columbus Community, Louisa-Muscatine, Durant, Mediapolis, Mid-Prairie (Wellman), Wapello, Wilton and ninth-ranked Central Lee.

Again, the top two teams, three if host Monticello lands in the top two, and the top five golfers qualify for the Boys' State Golf Meet Friday and Saturday (May 27-28) at Lakeside Golf Course in Fort Dodge.

UIC Golf Monday, May 9

By Jerry Wadlan

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The Upper Iowa Conference Golf Meet will be held Monday, May 9. The boys will tee off at the Jackson Heights Golf Course in Jackson Junction, while the girls will golf at the Guttenberg Golf and Country Club in Guttenberg. Tee time for both meets will be between 9 and 10 a.m.

Both the North Fayette Valley boys' and girls' team hope to be in the hunt for a championship.

The girls hope to repeat their title-winning performance of last year when they beat South Winn, 408-412. The TigerHawks crowned five All-UIC performers.

In pursuit of a repeat, three of those golfers return this year. Bailey Moser tied for the low score last year, but was medalist runner-up after losing a playoff hole. Claire Hanson and Molly Wenthold also hope to earn All-UIC honors for a second straight season.

Like last year, SW seems to be the main barrier to a repeat, but Starmont has been golfing well recently. And, as NFV head coach Robin Madole said, "In the UIC, you never know when a team might have a season-best day."

Currently SW has the lowest top four golfers' nine-hole adjusted scoring average of 192.3. NFV is right behind at 195. Starmont is currently at 211.00.

The TigerHawks and Warriors are the only teams with golfers averaging below 50. SW's top two average 45.7 and 46.16. For NFV, Wenthold's current average is 46.59, and Moser averages 46.67.

Madole cautioned, "Team titles are an average of the top four, or even top five in case of a tie. It all comes down to who keeps their poise and has a good day."

The boys' race could be a repeat for South Winn.

"Certainly, with three of the top four golfers in the conference, SW is the clear favorite in the team race," acknowledged NFV head coach Derek Heins.

"However, I wouldn't count us out of the team race," Heins added. "Kedrick Bemiss is one of the top two or three golfers in Class 2A, and Chase Hollinrake and Noah Koch have been playing very well lately. In fact, all of our guys have been improving lately, and if they can continue, there is no reason we can't compete with the Warriors."

Clayton Ridge, Ed-Co and Starmont are all in the fight for second.

In the individual races, the top 15 earn All-UIC honors.

"It will take a very good round of golf to be in the top 15, much less the medalist," Heins explained. "There are a lot of good golfers, and you know, all it takes is a good day for even an average golfer to win some honors. You just never know."

NFV boys second in UIC golf

The NFV boys battled the wind and rain Monday, May 9, at the Jackson Heights Golf Course in Jackson Junction, but had to settle for second place in the UIC Golf Tournament.

SW, the top-ranked team in Class 2A, won behind rounds of 79 by Logan Schweinefus and Anthony Emanuel. Schweinefus won the playoff round for medalist honors with Emanuel claiming runner-up honors.

Chase Hollinrake led the TigerHawks with a 42-41-83, good for sixth place and All-UIC honors.

Also earning All-Conference honors were Derek Elsbernd in 10th place with an 42-43-85, and Kedrick Berniss, who tied for 12th with his 41-45-86.

Rounding out the NFV scoring were Colin Gavin and Derek Thoms, who finished tied for 22nd with identical rounds of 45-45-90.

The first 12 holes were played in the rain, and after that, the wind picked up to make it a thoroughly miserable day.

Afterwards, coach Derek Heins said, "It was very tough conditions, but I was hoping our top three, while doing well, could have shot a little better."

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team passed its first playoff test Friday when it placed second at the Class 2A Sectional at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont. Next for the TigerHawks is the District Thursday in Iowa City. The top two teams and five golfers will advance to the State Golf Meet May 27-28 in Fort Dodge. Leading the effort for NFV will be (front l-r) head coach Derek Heins, Derek Thoms, Chase Hollinrake, Derek Elsbernd, Colin Gavin, Noah Koch and Kedric Bemiss. (Jerry Wadlan photo)

Play Thursday for a shot at State

Boys 2nd as NFV golf advances

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team will be in Iowa City Thursday competing in the Class 2A District Tournament at Pleasant Valley Golf Course.

The TigerHawks won the right to vie for the District crown by finishing second at the Regional hosted by Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont last Friday.

The day started in bright sunshine, but by afternoon, rain and strong winds raked the course, making it tough on the golfers, particularly on the final nine.

NFV head coach Derek Heins said, "It was cool all day and the wind and rain moved in over the final seven holes, but by now we're pretty used to weather like that."

In the end, fourth-ranked South Winn won by a mere three strokes over 18th-ranked NFV, 316-319. The two teams were tied at the end of the front nine, 156-156. However, the Warriors won the back nine, 156-162.

SW's Logan Schweinefus and Anthony Emanuel tied for low score with rounds of 73. Schweinefus won medalist honors with a par on the first playoff hole.

NFV's two top golfers also ended up tied. Senior Kedrick Bemiss shot a 39-38-77, while junior Noah Koch came in with a 37-40-77. Both TigerHawks will compete for individual honors in Iowa City.

In the playoff, Koch claimed third with a birdie on the first hole; it was his fourth birdie of the day to go with nine holes at par. Bemiss started the day with bogies on the first two holes but came back to par the final seven holes on the front nine and five holes on the back nine; he also had a birdie on the back nine.

Junior Chase Hollinrake and freshman Colin Gavin were the final two scorers for NFV. The TigerHawk duo outscored their Warrior counterparts by five strokes.

Hollinrake carded a 38-41-79 that included five pars and a birdie on the front nine and three par holes and a birdie on the final nine. Gavin came in with a 42-44-86, making par six times.

Also golfing for the TigerHawks were Derek Elsbernd (43-45-88) and Derek Thoms (46-43-89).

Afterwards, Heins stated, "Every one of our guys played really well. We really stuck with South Winn."

Thursday, the TigerHawks will face seven teams, including SW. Others qualifying for the District were Tipton, Monticello, Cascade, Clayton Ridge, Wilton, and Durant. Monti is the only other ranked team in the field; the Panthers are 26th.

Heins commented on his team's chances, "We proved to ourselves Friday that we can play with South Winn. Riding their coattails to State would be all right, but we know if we all play well, we have a chance to beat them."

The top two teams (three, if host Monticello is in the top two) and top five individuals will qualify for the Boys' State Golf Meet Friday and Saturday, May 27-28, on the Lakeside Golf Course in Fort Dodge; that is also the site for the State Cross Country Meet.

TigerHawk boys just miss State Golf

By Jerry Wadian

"It just wasn't our day," stated NFV head boys' golf coach Derek Heins after Friday's Class 2A District Golf Tournament on the Pleasant Valley Course in Iowa City.

The TigerHawks fired an 18-hole score of 342 for third place. With host Monticello placing second, that would normally mean NFV would also qualify. However, the course was not the Panthers' home course; rather, it was a state-assigned course at which Monti agreed to act as host.

South Winn won with a 334; Monti shot a 337. SW's Logan Schweinefus was medalist with a 74.

Kedrick Bemiss led NFV with a 38-40-78. He was one stroke away from qualifying for individual competition at the State Golf Meet. The senior shot five holes at par on both the front and back nines; he also nailed a birdie on no. 3 in the first round.

Chase Hollinrake was second on the TigerHawk squad with a 43-40-83. He made par twice on the first nine to go with a birdie on no. 8. He came back to hit par six times, including four straight on the final nine.

Noah Koch and Derek Elsbernd completed the TigerHawk scoring with a 90 and 91, respectively. Koch made par on four of the first nine holes, but only twice on the final nine. Meanwhile, senior Elsbernd shot par on six holes during the tournament.

Also shooting for NFV were senior Derek Thoms (54-50-104) and freshman Colin Gavin (51-45-96).

According to Heins, "We had a good game plan from tee to green, but putting on unfamiliar greens cost us. Each of our kids had several three-putts, and that was the difference."

"Monticello just got a great day from their no. three and four golfers, who must have played the rounds of their lives at 81 and 83.

"Overall, it was a great season, just a little disappointing for the kids for it to end one step short of our ultimate goal," Heins closed.
