2016 GRADUATES: Kedrick Bemiss, Derek Eisbernd, and Derek Thorns
2017 SENIORS: Chase Hollinrake, Noah Koch, and William Miller

POSTSEASON HONORS: All-UIC: Hollinrake
RETURNING LETTERWINNERS- Colin Gavin, Hollinrake and Koch

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH- Croy Schott
NFV OUTLOOK- "We will look to our three returning letterwinners and to our experienced upperclassmen for leadership," stated head coach Derek Heins. "Hollinrake, Koch and Gavin all have District experience. Miller and Schott look ready to step up and have good years. Hopefully, another newcomer or underclassman will fill in the sixth spot."

UIC OUTLOOK- NFV has claimed the runner-up spot in the UIC for the past three seasons. Heins commented, "Clayton Ridge has a good group back, as do Ed-Co and Starmont. We host the UIC this year on Monday, May 8, which gives us a little better chance to grab the title."

COACH'S KEYS TO THE SEASON- According to Heins, "We were only five shots away from making it to the State Golf Tournament last year. If all the guys do their part and put in the work, we could have similar success this year, and hopefully, take it one step further this time around."

After finishing second in the UIC and coming within five strokes of making the State Golf Tournament last year, the NFV boys' golf team has some high expectations to live up to. With three letterwinners and quality golfers moving up from the JV, the Tiger-Hawks should be able to meet those expectations. Going for the NFV boys this season are (front, l-r) seniors Chase Hollinrake, Noah Koch, and Josh Guenther; (row two) Trenten Matti, Colin Gavin, Seth Meyer, Zach Schroeder, and Croy Schott; (row three) Zander Britt, Brennan Imoski, William Miller, and Dylan Fenneman. Not pictured are Trenten Clausen and Joey Shea. (Jery Wadzan photos)

NFV boys' golf is blessed with three quality letterwinners to provide experience. The veterans include (l-r) Chase Hollinrake, Colin Gavin and Noah Koch.

Providing the senior leadership for the NFV boys' golf team will be (l-r) Josh Guenther, Chase Hollinrake, and Noah Koch.

NFV boys open golf season with a 'W'

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

North Fayette Valley opened the boys' golf season with a big 10-stroke win over defending UIC champion South Winn after a triangular Thursday in Luana.

Led by Noah Koch, the TigerHawks posted a 177. SW was next at 187, and host MFL/MM came in at 205.

Koch's round of 40 included a birdie on No. 4. The senior tied MFL/MM's Tristen Kautman for medalist honors.

Chase Hollinrake carded a 43, with a birdie on No. 2. Colin Gavin (45) and Croy Schott (50) completed the varsity scoring. William Miller also golfed for the TigerHawks, coming in at 57.

Afterwards, head coach Derek Heins explained, "It's always good to get that first meet under your belt. Our guys played well with the strong winds coming across the course."

"We haven't been on the golf course much at this point of the season, so those first meets will be about getting a feel for keeping the ball in play and improving our short game. Also, each of the guys had one hole with a big number, so we will also work on eliminating the big miss."

PVSC reseeded

The No. 8 green at Pleasant Valley Sports Club has been successfully reseeded. It should be ready to play in about three weeks.

In the meantime, the NFV golf teams will continue to play at other locations.

For more information, contact the club at (563) 423-7396.

The meet this week against Ed-Co on Thursday has been moved from Fayette to Edgewood.

Boys third at Waverly golf tourney

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

"It was a long week with a lot of golf," commented NFV head boys' golf coach Derek Heins after his squad finished competing in three UIC meets and an 18-hole tourney in just five days.

The golf tournament at Waverly on Fri. day is always a good test of where a team is at this point of the season. Judging by its third-place finish, NFV should feel pretty good.

The TigerHawks finished third in the eight-team field with a 341. West Delaware and New Hampton were one-two at 314 and 320, respectively. Charles City finished two strokes behind the TigerHawks.

Almost all NFV scores were higher over the back nine, possibly because of the rain and gusting winds.

Noah Koch and Colin Gavin led the TigerHawks' charge, each carding an 81 to finish tied for seventh, qualifying them for medals for top-12 finishers.

Chase Hollinrake was close behind with his 83, which also qualified him for a top-12 medal.

The three younger golfers had a little more trouble. Croy Schott shot a 96, while Zander Britt and Dylan Fenneman came in at 105 and 111, respectively.

Team Results

1. W. Delaware, 314; 2. New Hampton, 320; 3. NFV, 341; 4. Charles City, 343; 5. Jessup, 359; 6. Waverly-Shell Rock, 360; 7. Crestwood, 360; 8. Waverly-SR, JV, 411.

Individual TigerHawk Results

Koch, 39-43-81; Gavin, 37-44-81; Hollinrake, 38-45-83; Schott, 46-50-86; Britt, 54-51-105; Fenneman, 50-61-111.

The week started Monday, April 10, at Silver Springs Country Club in Ossian.

The TigerHawks lost their first match of the season, a rematch against host South Winn. The Warriors prevailed, 167-181.

The meet was marked by gusty winds, falling temperatures and a misting rain that fell over the final four holes.

Heins commented, "The conditions were really tough. Some of the boys played really well, while others had a little trouble staying focused. That can make it difficult because SW always plays well on its home course."

Schott carded the lowest score for NFV, a 44 that included three holes at par. Gavin was next in line, hitting par twice during his round of 45.

Hollinrake and Koch each shot rounds of 46 to round out the varsity scoring.

Senior Josh Guenther came in with a 52. William Miller shot a 53, and Britt and Fenneman each had rounds of 55. Heins said later, "We'll bounce back tomorrow at Waukon and continue to improve."

The next day, the team proved their coach a prophet, winning a triangular in Waukon by posting a 166. Host Waukon shot a 189, while MFL/MM carded a 205.

Hollinrake and Koch shared medalist honors with their scores of 39. Gavin was medalist runner-up with a 40.

Schott was the fourth varsity scorer with his 48.

Fenneman led the JV, carding a 49. Miller and Britt tied with rounds of 52, while Guenther shot a 70.

Thursday, the boys were in Edgewood to play on the very tough course at Lone Pine Country Club.

Ed-Co has one of the better boys' teams in the area, but NFV shot a scintillating 165. The Vikings were 10 strokes behind at 175, which their head coach said was good enough to beat most teams on that course.

Koch was medalist by one stroke with a 37 that included six holes at par and a birdie on No. 7.

Gavin carded a 40 for the third-lowest score by either team; he played very steady golf, hitting par five times.

Hollinrake birdied No. 6 on his way to a round of 41 that also included three par holes.

51s. Fenneman (59), Zachary Schroeder (62), and Trenten Matti (62) completed the scoring for NFV.

After the week of intense golf, Heins said, "We are looking forward to getting some practice time before our next meet Thursday in Jackson Junction."

TigerHawk boys' golf beats TV

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

After three meets and a tournament last week, the NFV boys' golf team got a chance to catch its breath this week with only a meet Thursday and a tournament on Saturday.

Saturday's tournament in New Hampton was a meeting of top golf programs.

The TigerHawks' score of 342 in the 18-hole tourney was enough to finish ahead of SW but four strokes behind Denver. Host New Hampton won easily with a score of 312.

Noah Koch was a model of consistency with rounds of 38-38 for a team-leading 76.

Colin Gavin was just as consistent, carding identical rounds of 42 to finish at 84. Chase Hollinrake fired a 42-43-85 for third place on the team. Croy Schott was the final scorer for NFV with a 49-48-97. Freshmen Dylan Fenneman (51-50-101) and Zander Britt (60-54-114) also golfed for the TigerHawks.

Team Results

1. New Hampton, 312; Denver, 346;
3. NFV, 342; 4. SW, 353.

The TigerHawks beat

Turkey Valley Thursday on the Trojans' home course in Jackson Junction.

The top five TigerHawks outshot the best TV score as NFV cruised to a 175-233 victory.

Hollinrake was medalist with a 40; he shot a birdie on No. 4 and hit par on three consecutive holes.

Koch was runner-up with a 43 that included one par and a birdie on No. 6.

Gavin made par on three holes on his way to a 44. Schott also made par on three holes in a round of 48.

The TigerHawk JV also had a good round with a score of 210, which was enough to beat the Trojan varsity. William Miller led the JV with a nice round of 49 that included a par on No. 3.

Britt shot a 53, and Fenneman and Brennan Imoehl each fired a 54.

Head coach Derek Heins stated, "Considering the cold and how windy it was, we didn't do badly. Miller had a very good round for the JV.

"We still need to work on avoiding that one hole that runs up the overall score."

Boys win 2 in windy week

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team defied the cold, windy conditions to post a pair of conference victories last week.

Monday, April 24, Starmont shot a 184, good enough to win most meets, but the TigerHawks were red-hot, shooting an outstanding round of 159.

It was the first meet of the season for the boys on their home course at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

Temperatures hovered in the mid 60s and the winds blew hard all afternoon, occasionally gusting over 30 mph.

However, the winds didn't seem to bother NFV one bit.

Noah Koch recorded a 37 to earn medalist honors. His round included birdies at Nos. 1 and 5 and parring Nos. 4, 7, and 8.

Colin Gavin had one of his best rounds of the season with a 39, including a birdie on No. 8 and a par on No. 2.

Chase Hollinrake shot a steady 41, hitting par on Nos. 1, 2, and 7. Croy Schott completed the sizzling team score with a 42. He made par on No. 2 and birdied No. 8.

Also golfing for the varsity were Dylan Fenneman (51) and Zander Britt (62).

The JV also shot well on the home course. William Miller led with a 49. Brennan Imoehl (52), Josh Guenther (54), and Seth Meyer (58) were the other scorers for the JV. Also representing the NFV JV was Trenton Matti (75).

Thursday, the boys beat host West Central at Big Rock Country Club in Fayette.

Once again it was a raw, windy night that saw many other area schools cancel activities. Winds gusted to 15-20 mph and temperatures only hit the low 40s, making wind chills in the high 20s.

Once again the TigerHawks managed the weather and the opponent, beating the Blue Devils, 174-218.

Koch started slowly with a pair of double bogeys, but recovered to tie WC's Brady Forsyth for medalist honors with rounds of 38. Koch shot two birdies and made par four times.

Hollinrake birdied No. 4 and made par five times in crafting a 40. Gavin and Shott each recorded a round of 48 to complete varsity scoring.

West Central did not have a complete JV team.

Also representing NFV were Fenneman and Guenther (50), Imoehl (58), Britt (59), Miller (65), and Matti (75).

UIC golf Monday

The 2017 Upper Iowa Conference Golf Meet will be held Monday, May 8.

The boys were supposed to play at home at Pleasant Valley Sports Club. While the course is open, the UIC has been moved to Elkader to help preserve the newly seeded green at No. 8.

The girls will tee off at the Jackson Heights Golf Course in Jackson Junction.

In girls' action, Turkey Valley is ranked seventh in Class 1A, and South Winn is sixth in Class 2A.

The only boys' team that is ranked is SW, which is 19th in Class 2A.

The top 15 golfers on both courses will earn All-Conference honors.

Tee-off time for both events will be at 9 a.m.

The NFV boys' golf team finished second to a surprising band of golfers from Clayton Ridge on Monday, May 8, in Elkader.

The TigerHawks had four of its six golfers earn All-Conference honors for finishing in the top 15.

Colin Gavin led the way for NFV with an 18-hole score of 80, placing him in a four-way tie for fourth.

The other TigerHawk All-UIC performers were Noah Koch and Chase Hollinrake, who tied for 10th with their rounds of 84.

Croy Schott was two strokes behind with his 86, earning him 13th overall.

Dylan Fenneman (100) and William Miller (102) were the other two golfers for NFV.

Jake Jensen of Clayton

Ridge was medalist with a 74. Ed-Co's Ethan Streicher won a sudden-death round against Dakota Olson of CR for medalist runner-up.

Earlier in the week, the TigerHawks ended the regular season with a win in a triangular in Luana.

NFV had a scintillating round of 164 to beat MFL/MM (193) and Postville (215).

Hollinrake and Koch tied for medalist runner-up honors with rounds of 40. MFL/MM's Tristen Kautman was medalist with a 39. Both NFV golfers birdied No. 7.

Schott and Fenneman also ended in a tie with their rounds of 42.

Meanwhile, the TigerHawk JV also ended the season with a victory, shooting a 196. MFL/MM and Postville had rounds of 243 and 275, respectively.

Josh Guenther led the JV with a 44 that included a par on No. 5.

Brennan Imoehl and Miller each shot a 48. Fenneman was the final JV golfer, shooting a round of 56. Zander Britt also represented NFV with his round of 58.

Next for the TigerHawks is the Class 2A Sectional Friday in New Hampton.

NFV will face Denver, MFL/MM, Osage, South Winn, Waukon, Sumner-Fredericksburg, and the host Chickasaws.

The top two teams, (three if host New Hampton finishes in the top two) will advance to play in the District Tournament Friday, May 19, at the Fox Ridge Golf Course in Waterloo, with Dike-New Hartford as host.

In addition, the top five golfers will compete for individual honors at the District Tournament.

Boys' golf earns District shot

The NFV boys' golf team earned the right to advance to the Class 2A District Golf Tournament Friday at the Fox Ridge Golf Course in Cedar Falls. Dike-New Hartford will be the host team with tee-off at 10 a.m.

The TigerHawks finished third last Friday at the Sectional Tournament in New Hampton.

Ordinarily, that would have left them six shots shy of advancing — the margin Denver had in placing second. However, in boys' competition, if the host school wins, then the third-place team also advances. Since the Chickasaws won by a dozen strokes over the Cyclones, NFV advanced with hopes of making it all the way to the State Golf Tournament.

Noah Koch led the TigerHawks at the Sectional Tournament with a consistent 18-hole score of 40-40-80. He was a stroke short of qualifying for individual competition at District. The senior shot a birdie on No. 1 on the front nine and made par on eight holes.

Chase Hollinrake was two shots shy of advancing as an individual with a 40-41-81. Like Koch, Hollinrake birdied No. 1 on the front nine; he shot a total of nine holes at par.

Colin Gavin was another shot behind with his two rounds of 40-42-82, which included seven par holes.

Croy Schott was the final scorer for NFV with a 47-44-91, which included hitting par five times.

The NFV boys' golf team ended the 2017 campaign at the Fox Ridge Golf Course in Cedar Falls on Friday. The TigerHawks faced what head coach Derek Heins called a "mini state field."

"There were three of the top six teams in Class 2A competing," he noted.

The TigerHawks had a team score of 343 in the 18-hole tournament to finish eighth. Clear Lake won with a 306. New Hampton also advanced to the State Golf Meet with a 321.

According to Heins, "To put things in perspective, if we were at the tourney at Gates Park, just 18 miles away, our 343 would have qualified us for the State Meet."

Seniors Noah Koch and Chase Hollinrake led the TigerHawks. Koch carded a 38-41-79, while Hollinrake came in with a 42-39-81, which included birdies on Nos. 11 and 17.

Sophomore Colin Gavin was third for NFV with two consistent rounds of 43-43-86.

Croy Schott was the last scorer for the TigerHawks with his 49-48-97.

William Miller (48-50-98) and Dylan Fenneman (51-48-99) also represented the TigerHawks.

After the tourney, Heins commented, "We are really going to miss Noah and Chase; they've had highly successful careers.

"We are lucky to have some guys coming back with talent, but they are going to have to put in some time in on golf courses this summer and work to improve for next year."

Team Results
