The NFV boys' golf team has both quality and quantity this season. Providing the TigerHawks with the punch it needs to succeed this season and in the future are (front, l-r) Dane Schott, Tyler Gross, Wyatt Streif, Dylan Fenneman, Devlin Corter, and Brandon Weidemann; (back) John McTaggart, Croy Schott, Andrew Schmitt, Tanner Johnson, Brennan Imoehl, Zander Britt, Colin Gavin, and Trenten Matti. NORTH FAYETTE VALLEY BOYS' GOLF 2018 FACTS

2017 UIC- 2nd

2017 GRADUATES: Chase Hollinrake, Noah Koch, and Josh Guenther

2017 SENIORS: Croy Schott, John McTaggart, Tyler Gross, and Brandon Weidemann

POSTSEASON HONORS: All-UIC: Colin Gavin (4th) and Schott (13th)

RETURNING LETTERWINNERS- Gavin, Croy Schott, Dylan Fenneman and Zander Britt

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH- John McTaggart returns to the links after sitting out last year with an injury. Brennan Imoehl got a lot of experience last year as a freshman and should compete for varsity time. NFV has six freshmen (Dane Schott, Tanner Johnson, Nolan Hoey, Andrew Schmitt, Devlin Corter, and Wyatt Streif) who could make an impact as the season goes along.

NFV OUTLOOK- "We will rely heavily on our four returning letterwinners," stated head coach Derek Heins. "We're also confident that the healthy competition among the 15 less-experienced golfers will fill out the top six spots with quality golfers."

UIC OUTLOOK- Heins noted, "Since last year's winner, Clayton Ridge, graduated all six of its varsity golfers, I think the race will be wide-open this year. However, we host the UIC this season, so I really like our chances."

COACH'S KEYS TO THE SEASON- According to Heins, "The guys have been putting in their time and look much improved. If they continue to work hard, we should have a good season. The playoffs feature some tough fields with Sectional at New Hampton and Districts in Dike. If we can get the right guys to step up at the right time, we'll be in good shape."

NFV golf rescheduled

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The opening golf match of the season between NFV and Postville has been rescheduled. The weekend snow forced the meet to be moved to Friday; it will still be held at the Tri-City Golf Course in Luana.

The home opener against South Winn at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont on Thursday is still tentatively on the schedule.

The boys' golf tournament on Saturday is still possible, but fans should note the weather forecast is for a 30 percent chance of showers.

Mother Nature 9, NFV 0

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

Mother Nature blanked NFV sports last week, pitching a no-hit shutout.

Between the snow on Tuesday and the unseasonably cold, windy conditions the rest of the week, none of the eight scheduled athletic events took place last week, and one event has already been cancelled for this week.

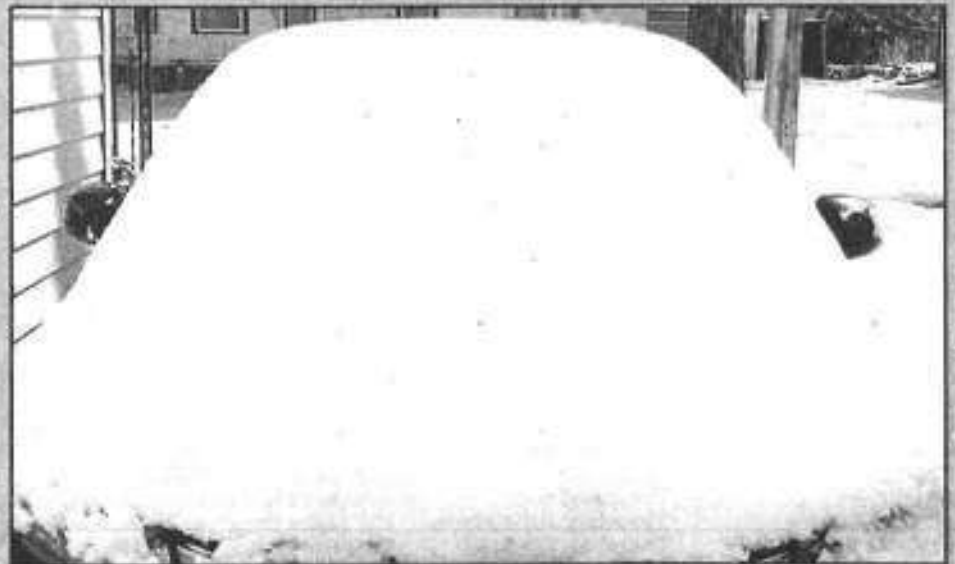

Girls' track meets in Mason City and at Beckman were cancelled, as were the boys' track meets at Ed-Co and Waverly. The boys' meet in Cresco on Tuesday (April 10) has already been cancelled.

TigerHawk boys' and girls' golf were both scheduled to open at Pleasant Valley

Sports Club in Clermont on Thursday, but the meet has been moved to Tuesday, April 17, in Clermont.

Also cancelled last week was the debut of the JV soccer team. The newest sport at NFV postponed its home debut Tuesday against Denver as well as a Thursday match against Waverly-Shell Rock. School officials are working at finding a day for the games to be rescheduled.

Hopefully, Mother Nature's wrath is about over, and sporting events will be able to continue. However, Iowa spring can bring just about anything when it comes to the weather.

Somewhere beneath all of this white is a car covered with the snowfall from last week's latest wintery blast. Sports fans did not have to worry about shoveling their cars out; there were no sporting events held last week because all eight events fell victim to Mother Nature. Fans can expect more events to be postponed or cancelled this week. (Jerry Wadian photo)

North Fayette Valley's Colin Gavin set the Pleasant Valley Sports Club course ablaze Thursday against South Winneshiek, carding a 37 to take medalist honors. Gavin's effort, just 2 over par for the course, was seven strokes better than the runner-up for the meet. (Zakary Kriener photo)

TigerHawk golfers tee off season

The North Fayette Valley girls' and boys' golf teams were finally in action last week as they teed off their 2018 seasons Thursday afternoon against South Winneshiek at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

Girls

The TigerHawk girls were led by Callie Lembke, who carded a 47, a mark good enough to earn her runner-up medalist honors.

Also contributing to the NFV winning effort were Anna Torkelson and Claire Hanson, who each scored a 51, and Laura Weidemann, who carded a career-best 54.

"It was nice to see some career-bests, especially since we had not played any complete holes at the course in practice yet (this season)," said coach Robin Madole following the 203-213 win over the Warriors. "Some of the girls have really been working hard at the range and inside."

Boys

The NFV boys were led by a stellar effort from Colin Gavin, who turned in a round of 37 to take medalist honors for the meet, a full seven strokes ahead of the runner-up.

Despite the strong effort, the TigerHawks were bested by the Warriors by a score of 181-186.

"This was our first time on the course, even for practice," pointed out NFV coach Derek Heins. "Obviously, we all have things to work on, but it was nice to get on the course."

Also contributing to the TigerHawk boys' score were Croy Schott (46), Dane Schott (50), and Zander Britt (53).

TigerHawk JV competitors Tanner Johnson (41) and Devlin Corter (45) also turned in solid efforts on the afternoon.

TigerHawk linksters compete in tourney

By ZAK KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The TigerHawk boys' golf team competed at the Washington Invite on Saturday, an 18-hole tournament featuring seven teams.

North Fayette Valley shot a 387, led by Colin Gavin with an 85. The TigerHawk junior was having one of the best rounds of the tournament entering the 17th hole, but he took a nine on a par-4 and a double-bogey on the final hole to end his day.

Senior Croy Schott had a solid day as well, shooting an 89, while Dane Schott (104) and Brennan Imoehl (109) completed the scoring effort for the TigerHawks.

Host team Washington took first place at the tournament by shooting a 317.

"The scores definitely reflect the fact that all the other teams have been on their courses and playing for the last three to four weeks, whereas this was only our second time on a course this spring," commented TigerHawk coach Derek Heins. "We have some work to do over the next few weeks to get dialed in, but we have the players that are willing to put in the time to get better."

TigerHawk boys busy on the course

By ZAK KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The North Fayette TigerHawk boys' golf team had a busy week as it worked to make up for lost playing time caused by a late start to the 2018 spring.

The TigerHawks began the week Monday, April 23, against Starmont at Pleasant Valley Sports Club and were led by medalist Colin Gavin who carded a 40.

NFV earned a close 190-199 win fueled by strong efforts from Croy Schott (47), Dane Schott (50), and Brennan Imoehl (53).

"It was a great night for golf," said NFV coach Derek Heins. "The more we are on the course, the more we have an idea of what each individual player needs to work on to improve."

Tuesday, April 24, North Fayette Valley competed at the Clayton Ridge Invite, taking third place with a team score of 392, behind only West Delaware (318) and East Buchanan (356).

The TigerHawks were led by Colin Gavin who shot a 86, Croy Schott with a 96, Brennan Imoehl with a 103, and Dane Schott with a 107.

Other contributors included Dylan Fenneman (109) and Andrew Schmitt (121).

"It was another day with great weather," commented Coach Heins. "It is great to get some holes in, but we are also in need of some on-course practice time. Once we are able to get some short-game work in, as well as on-course shot making, our scores should improve."

The TigerHawks competed at Waverly Municipal Golf Course on Wednesday and were again led by Colin Gavin, who earned medalist honors in the 12-team tournament.

Gavin fired a round of 76, three strokes lower than the runners-up for the day. Other TigerHawk golfers to contribute to the team's fourth-place finish included Croy Schott (88), Brennan Imoehl (96), and Dane Schott (103).

On Thursday, NFV picked up another win over West Central by having all four golfers earn either medalist or runner-up medalist honors.

Croy Schott led the way with his round of 44 at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Fayette, while teammates Andrew Schmitt, Zander Britt, and Dylan Fenneman each carded a 46.

The TigerHawks also competed at Waterloo Columbus on Saturday, the team's fifth time on the course over the past week.

The NFV boys were led by Colin Gavin (83) and Croy Schott (86) in the team's fourth-place effort.

The TigerHawks combined for 359 strokes, putting them behind Dike-New Hartford (322), Independence (347), and Grundy Center (356) and ahead of Waterloo Columbus by just one stroke (360).

Other contributing golfers for the TigerHawks included Zander Britt (93) and Andrew Schmitt (97).

NFV boys sweep 2 in UIC

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thetaylortownunion.com

NFV won two more boys' UIC golf meets last week, downing Clayton Ridge, Monday (April 30) in Guttenberg and MFL/MM Thursday at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

Saturday, the TigerHawks lost to New Hampton in a key matchup of Sectional foes.

The win over the Eagles Monday was especially sweet since CR is the defending UIC champion.

The TigerHawks won by 15 strokes, 200-215. Colin Gavin earned medalist honors with a 47, including a par at No. 4.

Andrew Schmitt and Andrew McTaggart tied for medalist runner-up, each firing a 49. Croy Schott and Dylan Fenneman completed the varsity scoring with rounds of 52 apiece.

The JV crafted a win with a cumulative score of 212.

Brennan Imoehl led the JV with a 52 that included one par. Zander Britt shot a 53, while Tyler Gross and Dane Schott each came in with a 55. Tanner Johnson (56) and Devlin Corter (61) also shot inches of rain the night before flooded several areas of the course, so the meet was moved to Pleasant Valley Sports Club.

The Chickasaws came to Clermont ranked ninth in Class 2A and walked away with a 159-172 win.

New Hampton's Ryan Anderson was medalist with a 1-over 36.

Gavin and Chickasaw Wyatt Stochl tied for runner-up honors with rounds of 39.

Next for NFV was Fenneman with a 43, followed by Croy Schott and Schmitt with 45s.

The JV came in at 213 with Dane Schott leading the way with a 49. Imoehl and Johnson each came in at 52, while Britt carded a 53.

Also golfing for the TigerHawks were Corter (54), Weidemann (55) and Gross (63). New Hampton did bring a full JV squad.

Heins commented after the meet, "New Hampton has a very good program. It was nice for our team to play against top-quality competition. It was also a good warm-up for the UIC and Sectional meets this week."

The NFV boys' golf team has seen individual scores that are very close together, therefore with the season winding down, head coach Derek Heins had not yet decided upon his top six for the UIC Meet on Monday May 7. The final six will come from this group of seven that includes (front, l-r) Tanner Johnson, seniors Croy Schott and John McTaggart, and Dane Schott; (back) Zander Britt, Colin Gavin, Andrew Schmitt, Brennan Imoehl, Dylan Fenneman.

Boys win UIC golf by eight

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

There were over 45 golfers competing at the UIC Boys' Golf Tournament at the Tri-City Golf Course in Luana on Monday. The tournament turned into a romp for the TigerHawks as NFV beat South Winn by eight strokes, 356-364, to claim first place. Central/Elkader was a very distant third at 389.

Colin Gavin earned medalist honors with an 80, seven strokes ahead of SW's Braden Lensing. The TigerHawks' Andrew Schmitt claimed third place with an 88.

In all, NFV had four golfers in the top 15, thus winning All-Conference honors. In addition to Gavin and Schmitt, Croy Schott (92) and Dylan Fenneman (96) placed fourth and 10th, respectively, to earn the All-Conference honor.

Also golfing for the TigerHawks were Zander

Britt (103 for 21st) and Dane Schott (105 for 25th).

Team Results

NFV, 356; 2. SW, 364; 3. C/E, 389; 4. Starnont, 410; 5. Clayton Ridge, 415; 6. Postville, 432; 7. MFL/MM, 461; 8. TV, 648. WC did not have enough golfers for a full team.

Individual NFV Results

TH boys to New Hampton for golf

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The NFV boys' golf team opens Class 2A postseason play with a Sectional Meet Friday in New Hampton.

Competing with the TigerHawks will be Denver, MFL/MM, Osage, South Winn, Waukon, Sumner-Fred., and host New Hampton.

The top two teams - three if host New Hampton finishes in the top two - will advance to play in the District Tournament on Friday, May 18, at Fox Ridge Golf Club in Cedar Falls.

Last year, host New Hampton won the Sectional with Denver as the runner-up, allowing NFV to advance after claiming third by six strokes over Osage.

This season, the TigerHawks would like to be in the top two.

Head coach Derek Heins noted, "With the improving weather and all the extra work the boys have done, our scores have been really improving. I hope that we'll be at our best by Sectionals."

In addition to the team play, the top five golfers from the Sectional will compete for individual honors at the District Tournament hosted by Dike-New Hartford.

The District Meet will feature the top teams and individuals from the sectionals in Hampton and Parkersburg.

Tee-off for both play-off meets will be 10 a.m.

NFV boys' golf advances

For the third consecutive year, the TigerHawk boys' golf team advanced out of the Sectional Golf Tourney. NFV finished third and will compete at the District Tournament on Friday at Fox Ridge Golf Course in Dike.

The Sectional Meet last week was moved ahead from Friday to Thursday because of anticipated bad weather.

Host New Hampton (ranked ninth in Class 2A) won the meet with a 327. That meant three teams qualified for District. Denver was second with a 335 and NFV came in with a 354, four strokes better than Summer-Fredericksburg.

Colin Gavin was the hottest golfer on the course with a 37-38-75, earning medalist honors for the TigerHawk junior. For the tourney, Gavin was just 3-over, making par on 12 of the 18 holes; he also birdied No. 6 during the opening round. The Chickasaws' Ryan Anderson was runner-up with a 76.

Dylan Fenneman recorded a 46-44-90; he made par twice. Also shooting for NFV were Croy Schott (50-43-93), Andrew Schmitt (49-47-96), Zander Britt (51-45-96), and Tanner Johnson (54-51-105).

Overall, the NFV golfers finished 1st, 15th, 21st, 25th, and 35th in the field of 48 golfers.

Head coach Derek Heins was pleased with the team effort on Thursday and noted how great it is to be going to Districts for a third time.

The TigerHawk head man also cautioned, "This is always a tough District with very tough teams, but we really have nothing to lose. It will be a great experience for our younger golfers."

If host Dike-New Hartford is in the top two, three teams will qualify for the State Golf Tournament; otherwise only two teams will advance.

To qualify as an individual, a golfer must finish in the top two (including all ties).

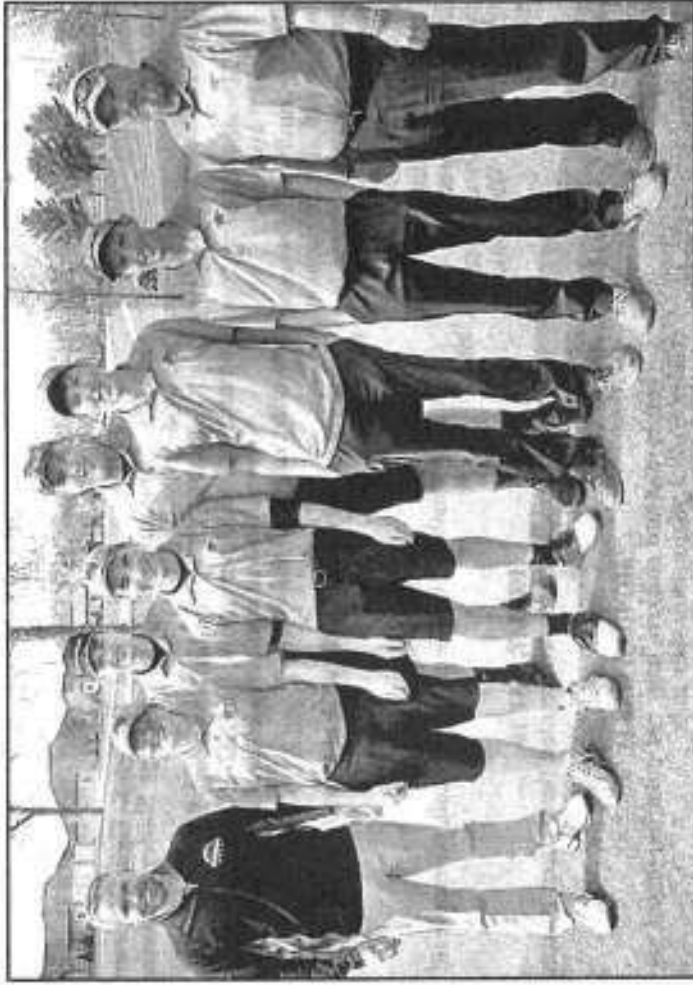

The Class 2A State Golf Tournament is slated for American Legion Golf Course in Marshalltown on Thursday and Friday, May 24-25.

Team Scores

1. New Hampton, 327; 2. Denver, 335; 3. NFV, 354; 4. Summer-Fred., 358; 5. South Winn and Osage, 361; 7. Waukon, 382; 8. MF/JMM, 500.

Individual TigerHawk Results

1. Gavin, 37-38-75; 15. Fenneman, 46-44-90; 21. Schott, 50-43-93; 25. Britt, 51-45-96; 35. Johnson, 54-51-105.

The NFV boys' golf team fired a 354 at the Class 2A Sectional Golf Tourney Thursday in New Hampton, earning a third consecutive trip to Districts for the TigerHawks. Representing NFV at the Sectional were (l-r) head coach Derek Heins, Dane Schott, Tanner Johnson, Zander Britt, Andrew Schmitt, Croy Schott, medalist Colin Gavin, and assistant coach Jim Calkins. NFV boys 6 shy of State berth

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

"We actually played our best round of golf of the season," commented NFV boys' golf coach Derek Heins after his team shot a 332 at the District Golf Tournament at Fox Ridge Golf Course in Dike.

Despite the season-best performance, the TigerHawks did not qualify for the State Meet later this month. With host Dike-New Hartford finishing in the top two, three teams advanced. NFV was just six strokes shy of making the cut.

Roland-Story won with a 321; DNH was a stroke behind at 322, and Clarion-Goldfield was third with a 326. Medalist honors went to Dylan Olson of Osage with his 74; Dylan Ellis of A-P was a stroke behind to finish as runner-up.

Just to show how close the team scoring was, NFV's 332 was just six strokes off the leaders, but only sixth in the team race.

Colin Gavin led the TigerHawks with a 37-40-77, just two shots from making the State field as an individual.

"Gavin had a very solid round with three birdies, but a pair of par-5s hurt him a bit," noted Heins.

According to the coach, "Croy Schott (41-40-81) and Andrew Schmitt (46-37-83) played their best golf of the season."

Also representing NFV were Zander Britt (43-48-91), Dylan Fenneman, (48-46-94), and Dane Schott (59-59-118).

Afterwards, Heins commented, "I'm proud of this team and how far they progressed in a short amount of time. Once the weather turned around, the boys put in a lot of time working on their game and coming together as a team."

The TigerHawks will have everyone back but Schott from the District Tournament next season.

"We will miss Croy's steady play," noted Heins. Fortunately, we should have a strong group of young guys to try to fill his shoes and compete with some of our veteran players."
