2019 FACTS

2018 UIC- 2nd

2018 GRADUATES: Croy Schott, John McTaggart, Tyler Gross, and Brandon Weidemann

2019 SENIOR: Colin Gavin

POSTSEASON HONORS: All-UIC: Colin Gavin (1st), Schmitt (3rd), Fenneman (10th)

RETURNING LETTERWINNERS- Zander Britt, Dylan Fenneman, Andrew Schmitt, Dane Schott, and Gavin

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH- Chase Aeschliman, Nick Buffington, Isaiah Corbin, and Devlin Corter

NFV OUTLOOK- "We have five returning letterwinners and some solid newcomers so we look for a lot of healthy competition to fill the top five slots," stated head coach Derek Heins. With Gavin, Fenneman, Schmitt, Britt, and Schott, The TigerHawks will feature five golfers with District experience; the first three names on the list were also All-UIC performers. Another factor helping NFV this season is the fact that both the Sectional and Districts meets will be held on the same places as last year, so the golfers are familiar with the courses.

UIC OUTLOOK- Heins noted, "We host this season, so I really like our chances." South Winn is always strong and Central/Elkader was third last season. However, the UIC frequently has a surprise team every season that either wins or comes very close.

COACH'S KEYS TO THE SEASON- According to Heins, "We don't have big numbers, but what we lack in quantity we make up for in quality. We made it to Districts last season and had quite a run there, but didn't quite get it done. Hopefully, this year we can put the pieces together for another run. It will take a lot of hard work, but I think the guys are up to it."

The 2019 NFV boy's golf team doesn't have the numbers that the last few clubs did, but these Tiger-Hawks hope to make up for the lack of depth with the quality of the golfers. Golfing this season for NFV are (front, l-r) head coach Derek Heins, Colin Gavin, Zander Britt, Nick Buffington, and Dylan Fenneman; (back) Dane Schott, Andrew Schmitt, Chase Aeschliman, Devlin Corter, Isaiah Corbin, and assistant coach Jim Calkins. TigerHawk golfers tee off season with wins

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The TigerHawk boys' and girls' golf teams officially teed off their 2019 seasons Monday, April 8, as NFV competed head-to-head against MFL/MarMac at Tri-City Country Club in Luana.

Both the NFV boys and girls were victorious in the season opener as neither Bulldog was able to field a full team.

The TigerHawk girls were led by medalist Taylor Ellis (48) and runner-up Rayne Everitt (54). Other golfers competing included Emma Pleggenkuhle (58), Mariah Wettleson (61), Sam Wenthold (66), Lexi West (66), Sydney Mabb (67) and Alyssa Jones (87). The contributing scores from Ellis, Everitt, Pleggenkuhle, and Wettleson scored 221 strokes.

"It was very windy for our opening meet, but we had nice temps," said coach Robin Madole. "I wasn't quite sure what we would shoot as a team, so this was a good place to start, and I am sure we will improve from here as we gain valuable experience. We worked out some first meet jitters and I know the other upper classmen will come through."

The North Fayette Valley boys also started the season with a win as medalist Colin Gavin (41) and runner-up Andrew Schmitt (43) led the way.

Other contributors to NFV's score of 176 were Isaiah Corbin (44) and Zander Britt (48).

Junior varsity golfers for the meet included Nick Buffington (48), Dylan Fenneman (52), Dane Schott (58), and Chase Aeschliman (80).

"It's always good to get the first one under the belt. We will work to improve from here," recapped coach Derek Heins.

The TigerHawks competed at Waverly-Shell Rock Saturday morning and at home against West Central on Monday; however, results and statistics were unavailable at press time.

NFV will be back on the links Thursday against Turkey Valley at Jackson Junction and again Saturday at New Hampton.

Boys' golf has full week

By Jerry Wadlan

jwadlan@thefayettecountyunion.com

With two tournaments and a pair of UIC outings, it was a busy week of golf for the NFV boys.

The full schedule began Monday, April 15, with the home opener at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

With West Central only having two golfers, the Blue Devils had no chance of winning. And, it would have taken a very good round to match the TigerHawks' 182.

Colin Gavin was medalist with a round of 42, which included a birdie on no. 6.

Andrew Schmitt and Dylan Fenneman tied for medalist runner-up with identical scores of 46. Zander Britt was the fourth varsity scorer, carding a 48.

Also golfing for the TigerHawks were Dane Schott (52), Nick Buffington (56) and Chase Aeschliman (70).

WC's golfers were Logan West (60) and Nathan Dolf (92).

Wednesday, April 17, saw the TigerHawks in Waverly for an eight-team tournament that had been postponed earlier in the season.

NFV finished a very respectable third with a 348. Host WSR won with a 320 and New Hampton came in with a 338.

The TigerHawks had just finished their round when the skies opened up and it poured rain.

"Some teams had to go back out after the storm in order to finish," noted NFV head coach Derek Heins.

The TigerHawk mentor said of his team, "I was happy with our team score and a third-place finish in a very tough field. We did have some putting woes because the green at Prairie Links are bigger and faster than anything we've played on this season so some of the guys struggled with the speed/distance on lag putts."

One TigerHawk who did handle the fast greens well was the senior, Gavin, who tied for second with his 78.

Team Scores

1. Waverly-Shell Rock, 320; 2. New Hampton, 338; 3. NFV, 348; 4. Vinton-Shellsburg, 359; 5. W-SR JV, 369; 6.

Oelwein, 386; 7. Crestwood, 412; 8. Jesup, 417.

Individual TigerHawk Scores

Gavin, 38-40-78; Schmitt, 46-40-86; Britt, 44-46-90; Corbin, 54-51-105; Schott, 50-48-98; Fenneman, 47-45-92.

The next night, the boys were in Jackson Junction to face Turkey Valley.

The TigerHawks did well on the cold windy course, crafting a 179-218 victory.

Gavin earned another medalist title with a 41. Fenneman shrugged off a triple-bogey on no. 9 to have a solid 44, good enough for medalist runner-up honors.

Schmitt and Britt finalized the varsity scoring with a 46 and 48, respectively.

Nick Buffington led the JV with his 45. Schott was next in line with a 48. Isaiah Corbin and Aeschliman completed the NFV roster shooting a 51 and 75, respectively.

"The wind and the fast greens were a real challenge," commented Heins. "The par 5's were playing long since they were into the wind so they became a real challenge."

NFV finished the week at the 18-hole New Hampton Invite.

"It was good to get a competitive round in at our Sectional site," noted Heins. "The weather was beautiful, but the course was still showing the effects of the recent storms."

Host New Hampton won with a 323, but NFV claimed second with its 352.

Schmitt parlayed a 43-42-85 for a team-leading fifth place in the tourney.

Gavin (43-43-86, sixth) and Schott (44-43-87, seventh) were right behind.

According to Heins, "We played pretty solid golf. Both Schmitt and Corbin birdied the par 5 sixth hole. Schott got a birdie on no. 8.

"Right now with the UIC and playoffs coming up, we're working on the short game and our mental approach," Heins concluded.

Team results

1. New Hampton, 323; 2. NFV, 352; 3. Denver, 372; 4. South Winn, 403.

Individual TigerHawk Results

5. Schmitt, 43-42-85; 6. Gavin, 43-43-86; 7. Schott, 44-43-87; 11. Corbin, 49-45-94; 12. Britt, 47-48-95; 16. Fenneman, 50-52-102.

Boys' golf keeps on winning

By Jerry Wadian

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The NFV boy's golf team continued to have a stellar season last week when it won two UIC contests and came out on top of the tournament in Guttenburg.

The week started in the rain as the TigerHawks hosted Postville in a downpour at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

The boys had a relatively easy time, winning, 177-220. Colin Gavin was medalist with a three-over par, 39.

Andrew Schmitt and Zander Britt tied for runner-up honors with rounds of 45 apiece.

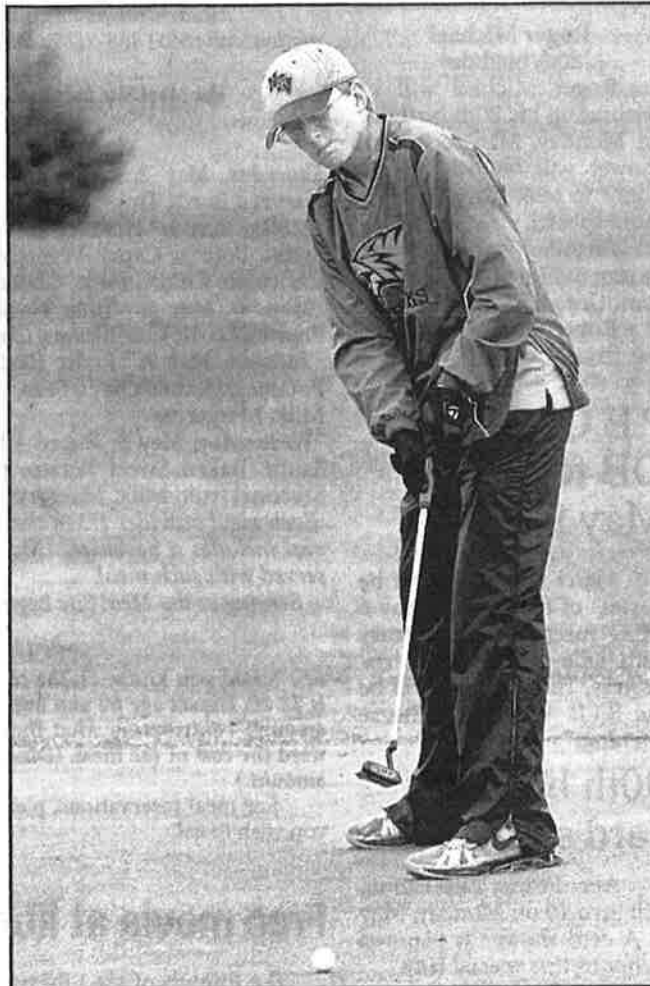

Dane Schott was the fourth varsity scorer, shooting a 48. Dylan Fenneman was close behind with his 49. Isaiah Corbin (50), and Nick Buffington (52) also represented the TigerHawks.

According to head coach Derek Heins, "It was windy with rain throughout; in fact, it rained pretty good for much of the round. Considering the conditions, all of the boys played very well and rang up some very decent scores."

The boys won their first tournament of the season Tuesday, April 23 in Guttenburg, topping the four-team field with a 350 to win by 39 strokes.

Five of the top 11 golfers came from NFV. Gavin beat East Buchan's Trey Johnson by six strokes (79-85) to earn medalist honors.

Britt and Corbin tied for third with identical scores of 90. Fenneman and Schmitt tied for sixth, recording scores of 91. Schott was the sixth golfer for NFV, shooting a 98.

Team Results

1. NFV, 350; 2. Central/Elkader, 389; 3. East Buchanan, 389; 4. Clayton Ridge, 414.

Thursday, NFV beat the visiting Eagles of Clayton Ridge, 168-201. Coach Heins called it a "great job" as his team shot a season-low.

Gavin shot a scintillating round of 36, which is par at Pleasant Valley Sports Club, to earn medalist honors; his round included an eagle on no. 7.

Schmitt was runner-up with a nice round of 40 on the course pelted by rain for the first two holes. Fenneman and Schott tied at 46 to complete the varsity scoring.

Buffington led the JV with his 43. Britt was four strokes behind at 47. Corbin (52) and Aeschliman (70) completed the JV scoring.

Saturday's tournament at Columbus was cancelled due to the weather.

NFV hosts UIC golf

By Jerry Wadlan

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

NFV will be hosting the Upper Iowa Conference Golf Tournament next week at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

The boys will tee off at 9 a.m. on Monday, May 6, and the girls will golf Tuesday, May 7, also at 9 a.m.

For both events, a golfer must finish in the top 15 to qualify for All-Conference honors.

The TigerHawk boys are the defending champs and return 2018 UIC medalist, Colin Gavin.

Head coach Derek Heins expects a close four-way battle between his TigerHawks, South Winn, Clayton Ridge, and Central/Elkader.

"I'd like to think we have an advantage since we are playing on our home course."

The four-time defending champion NFV girls have no returning starters from last year, but the current crop of TigerHawks have had a lot of success in match play, losing only to Clayton Ridge last week.

Head coach Robin Madole expects a close battle with the Eagles although she expects South Winn and Postville to be threats if either of the favorites falter.

NFV boys win UIC golf - again

By Jerry Wadian
jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The North Fayette boys' golf team repeated as UIC golf champions Monday, May 6, on its home course at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

Last year the TigerHawks beat South Winn by eight strokes. This time the boys beat Central/Elkader by 14 strokes, 340-354.

In all, five TigerHawks earned All-Conference honors by finishing in the top 15. Colin Gavin became the two-time UIC medalist, shooting a 42-38-80. Braden Lansing of SW was the runner-up with a 40-41-81.

NFV's All-UIC performers included Andrew Schmitt (42-43-85), Dylan Fenneman (47-40-87), Zander Britt (42-46-88), and Nick Buffington (49-47-96). Dane Schott missed All-Conference honors by a single stroke with his 46-51-97.

TigerHawk headman Derek Heins stated afterwards, "I'm really pleased for all six golfers. They've worked hard and gotten better throughout the season. I think their performance today will give them a boost for Friday's Sectional in New Hampton."

Team Results*

1. NFV, 340;
2. Central/Elkader, 354;
3. South Winn, 363;
4. Clayton Ridge, 400;
5. Turkey Valley, 428;
6. Postville, 441.

*NFV/MM and West Central did not have enough golfers for a full team.

Boys' golf ends regular season with Ws

By Jerry Wadian
jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

The North Fayette Valley boys ended their regular season of golf with a pair of wins.

The week opened on Monday, April 29, in Calmar as the TigerHawks edged host South Winn, 177-181.

Colin Gavin's medal of 41 earned him medalist honors by two strokes over SW runner-up Brady Hageman. Zander Britt was next for NFV with

Once again Gavin led the team with a four-over-par 39 to earn medalist honors.

Central's Andy Seeland was medalist runner-up with a 41.

Buffington's 42 was next for NFV. Britt was a stroke behind at 43, and Schott scored varsity again, this time with a 45.

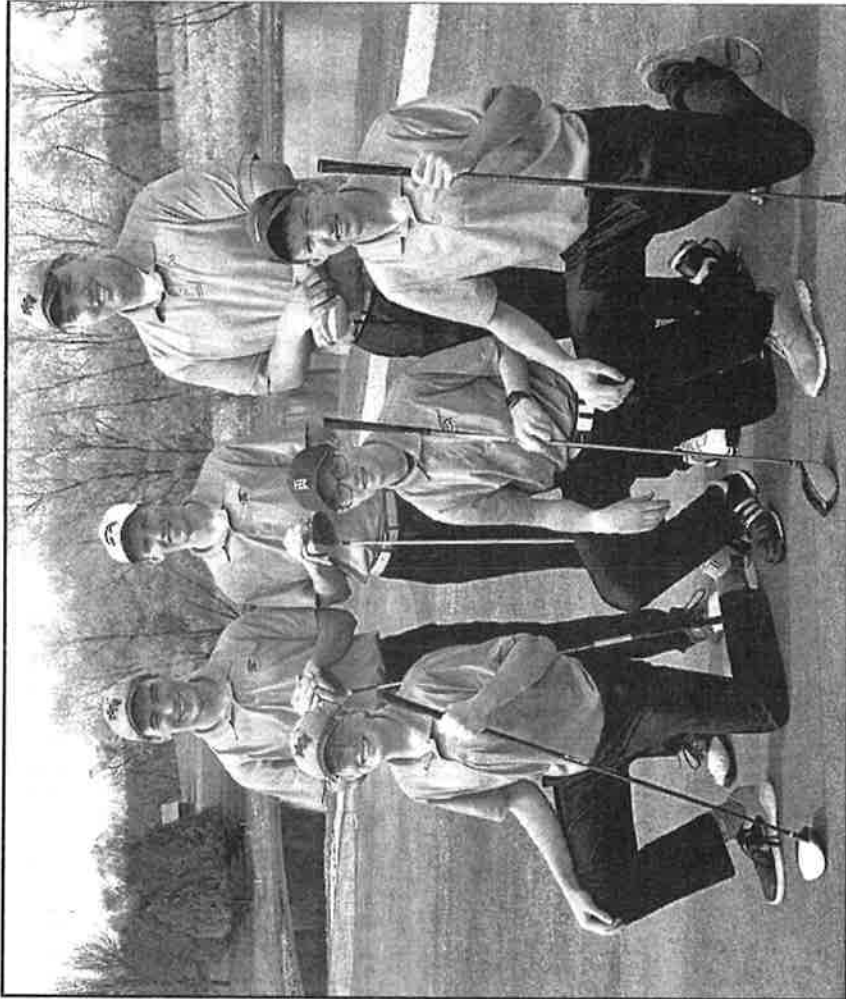

Fenneman also shot a 45, while Devlin Coter came in with a 48, and Aeschliman shot his second 74 of the week.

a 44, edging teammate Dane Schott by one stroke. Andrew Schmitt rounded out the varsity scoring with his 47.

Others representing NFV were Dylan Fenneman and Nick Buffington (51 apiece), and Chase Aeschliman (74).

The regular season ended Thursday, May 2, against Central/Elkader at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

The TigerHawks disposed of this band of Warriors, 169-190.

The NFV boys' golf team swept through the conference during the regular season. Then on Monday, May 6, the TigerHawks dominated the conference meet, beating runner-up Central/Elkader by 14 strokes, 340-354. Swinging the clubs for NFV were (front, l-r) Dylan Fenneman, Nick Buffington, and Isaiah Corbin; (back) Zander Britt, Colin Gavin, and Andrew Schmitt. Gavin earned medalist honors for the second year in a row and five TigerHawks made All-Conference. (Jerry Wadian photo)

The NFV boys' golf team came through in fine style at Friday's Sectional tournament in New Hampton, finishing second to sixth-ranked New Hampton, earning themselves a place in the District Tournament this Friday in Dike. Gavin wins playoff for medalist

Boys' golf to Districts

jwadian@thefayettecountyunion.com

NFV boys' golf knew it had a stern challenge at the Sectional Golf Tournament Friday in New Hampton. There were four ranked teams, and only two could advance, three if the host Chickasaws, ranked sixth, would win.

At the end of the 18-hole tourney, New Hampton did win with a 326.

However, the 12th-ranked TigerHawks earned second place by four strokes, 351-355, over unranked Lake Mills. That meant 11th-ranked Sumner-Fred, and 23rd-ranked Forest City will be staying home this Friday as NFV competes in District action for the right to go to the State Golf Tournament Thursday and Friday, May 23-24.

Colin Gavin (40-37-77) finished in a four-way tie for medalist honors, forcing a playoff. The first playoff hole saw the two Forest City golfers bogey, leaving Gavin and New Hampton's Ryan Anderson to golf on.

The next hole saw both golfers get a double-bogey six, forcing a third playoff hole.

Gavin won when Anderson conceded after hitting his tee shot out of bounds and the next shot went into the trees.

Dylan Fenneman had maybe his best day on the course, especially on the back nine when he fired a 42, giving him an 88 on the day.

"He really came through when we needed it," commented head coach Derek Heins.

Two other golfers Heins noted for coming up big in scoring were Zander Britt (47-45-92) and Andre Schmitt (45-49-94).

Others golfing for the TigerHawks were Nick Buffington (48-52-100) and Dane Schott (57-51-108).

According to Heins, "We had a good game plan for the course and each boy executed it the best they could. The course was wet and played a little bit longer than the last time we were there."

Friday, NFV travels to the Fox Ridge Course in Dike. In addition to the teams at New Hampton, the TigerHawks will face A-P, Clarion-Goldfield-Dows, and South Hamilton, none of which is ranked, but capable of a great day.

Gavin qualifies for State Golf Meet

NFV went into the boys' Class 2A District Golf Tournament Friday in Dike with high hopes; however, things didn't go well as they wanted. The TigerHawks finished sixth on the cold, blustery, rainy day.

However, Colin Gavin finished as medalist runner-up, thereby qualifying to compete as an individual at the State Golf Tournament Thursday and Friday at the American Legion Memorial Golf Course in Marshalltown.

Gavin crafted a 37-39-76. The only senior on the squad made par 10 times and managed birdies on nos. 7 and 9. Surprisingly enough, Gavin is the first boy from NF to qualify for State Golf in a good many years. Valley sent several boys to State, but not North High or NF.

According to head coach Derek Heins, "It has been so long I don't know who would have been the last boy from NF to qualify for state golf, maybe John R Falb in the early 80s; at that, I'm not sure if he qualified for the field or not.

In the team race, New Hampton was the easy winner with a 318, including a 76 by medalist Ryan Anderson. Union was runner-up with a 334.

Andrew Schmitt was second for NFV with his rounds of 45-44-89. Also below 100, was Dylan Fenneman who notched a 51-48-99. Also scoring for NFV, were Dane Schott (52-49-101) and Nick Buffington (53-48-101). Zander Britt was a stroke behind, carding a 50-52-102.

While Gavin has one more chance on the links in his high school career, the rest of the team will be back next season. Considering the improvement by all five during this season, NFV should have another good squad next year to defend its UIC title and maybe make the State Tournament as a team.

Team Results

1. New Hampton, 318; 2. Union, 334; 3. South Hamilton, 345; 4. Lake Mills, 347; 5. Monticello, 347; 6. Clarion-Goldfield-Dows, 358; 7. NFV, 365; 8. A-P, 387.

Gavin competes at State Golf meet

By Jerry Wadlan

Collin Gavin's stint as the first NFV boys to make the State Golf Meet was a short one as storms rolled through the Marshalltown area Friday morning. With over 11.5 inches of rain in six days, the course just could not hold any more water. Thus officials cancelled the second round of action.

In fact, the Class 1A and 3A tournaments were also cancelled.

That meant the awards were based on the scores from Thursday.

That day started cold, cloudy, and windy at the American Legion Memorial Golf Course. The sun did come out in the afternoon.

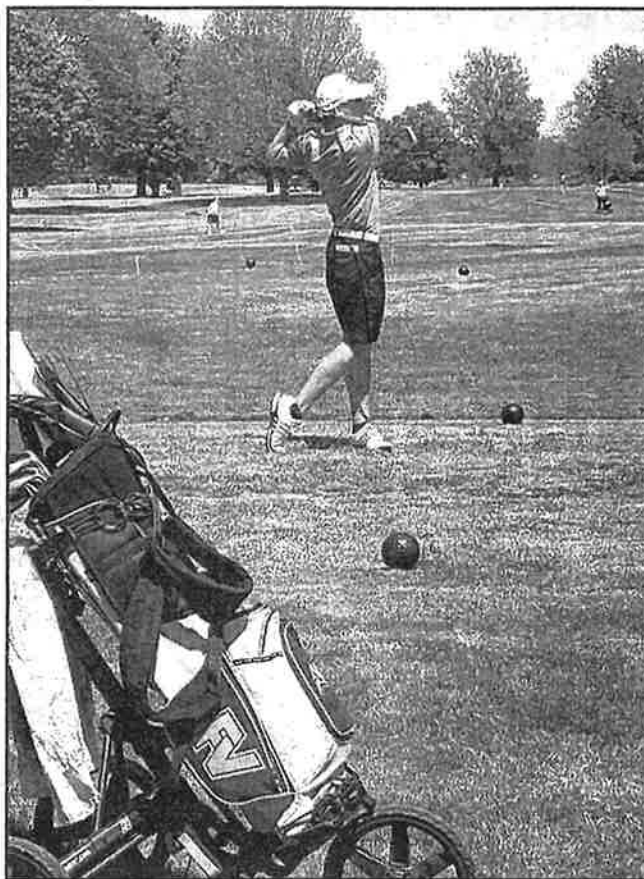

Gavin carded an 11-over 80, placing him in an eight-way tie for 20th.

What might have happened on day two makes interesting speculation since there was three golfers tied at 79; and eight tied at 77.

The winning medalist, Kolby Shackelford of Panorama, shot an even-par 69! The medalist runner-up was three over par.

Afterwards, Gavin expressed some disappointment at not getting closure at the State Tournament, but acknowledged a great season.

Gavin commented, "I'd like to thank coaches Derek Heins and Jim Calkins for always pushing me and helping me improve the 'little things' because that is what helped me achieve my dream of competing at State."

The NFV senior was in an eight-way tie for 20th with a chance to really move up in Friday's round. However, thunderstorms drenched the already saturated grounds and the round was canceled, leaving the first day scores as the official results. (Kerla Gavin photo)
