- "Chase Aeschliman continues to work hard and has made significant improvements." – Coach Heins

Coach's Comments

Team Strengths- "Senior leadership."

Team Concerns- "Lack of depth."

Conference Outlook- "I know if we take care of business and put in the work, we will be in the mix."

Thoughts on Returning to the Course after COVID-19 Cancelled Last Season- "We would have had a solid team last year and I'm still disappointed for them that we didn't have a season. As for this season, it's easy to follow social distancing rules on the course, the team just needs to be cognizant of the risks off the course and when gathering in groups. If everyone does their part, we will be fine."

NFV boys golf beats Waukon in season debut

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

It was rainy, cold, and windy on Thursday afternoon when the TigerHawk boys' golf team made its season debut, but they got the job done to notch win No. 1 of the season.

"It was really good to get the first meet in the books. This sets the base for us and we'll build from here," said coach Derek Heins, as his team defeated Waukon, 173-194.

TigerHawk golfers Nick Koch (42) and Andrew Schmitt (43) earned medalist and runner-up honors for the meet, respectively. Other varsity contributors were Tanner Johnson and Dane Schott - both of whom finished with rounds of 44.

"There were a lot of positives and definitely some things to learn from," continued Coach Heins. "I'm looking forward to seeing where the season goes from here."

Schmitt leads TH boys at W-SR Invite

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The NFV boys' golfers competed in its first tournament action of the season on Saturday as they took part in the Waverly-Shell Rock Invitational.

"Playing 18 holes takes more patience and mental toughness than a 9-hole meet," said coach Derek Heins. "It is good to have these experiences for the boys when it comes time for conference and sectionals. This will pay dividends down the road!"

The TigerHawks were led by senior Andrew Schmitt who carded a 79 and finished third in the eight-team (48 individuals) tournament. Dane Schott had a round of 86 to take 14th.

Other NFV competitors included Nick Koch (91), Clay Moser (97), Nick Buffington (101), and Grant Stolka (112).

Next up on the schedule, the TigerHawk boys will host West Central on Thursday at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

NFV boys' golf defeats West Central

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

Both North Fayette Valley golf teams were in action last week, with the girls competing at New Hampton on Tuesday (April 13) and the boys hosting West Central on Thursday evening.

The girls shot a 250 to take fourth behind New Hampton (189), Crestwood (224), and Denver (233). Individual TigerHawk scores were not available at press time.

On Thursday, the NFV boys defeated West Central, 170-246, to improve to 2-0 in head-to-head play this season.

The TigerHawks were led by Tanner Johnson and Dane Schott who each carded low scores of 41. Andrew Schmitt was a shot back with a 42 and Nick Koch finished with a 46.

The boys and girls were scheduled to face Postville on Monday; however, the meet was postponed due to weather.

Up next, both squads will be back in action on Thursday as Upper Iowa Conference opponent Turkey Valley comes to Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont to compete.

Both the North Fayette Valley girls' and boys' golf teams notched wins over Turkey Valley last week as the TigerHawks hosted their Upper Iowa Conference foes on Thursday evening at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont.

The NFV girls came out on the low end of a 214-249 score as Rayne Everitt earned medalist honors for the meet with a round of 47. Fellow TigerHawk Shae Moncada earned medalist runner-up with a 53.

"It's great to see this team make huge personal and team improvements," said coach Robin Madole after the win. "They have been working hard together as a team and it is showing!"

With Everitt and Moncada leading the way, the remaining NFV strokes were earned by Claire Cimmings (57) and Claire Britt (57). The four leading North Fayette Valley golfers accounted for the four lowest scores of the dual with the lowest Turkey Valley golfer carding a 57.

Alyssa Jones (62) and Abby Chicken (73) also competed for the TigerHawks.

For the NFV boys, it was another dominating performance as all four TigerHawks carded final scores lower than any Turkey Valley golfers. The black and blue earned a decisive 172-226 win in the dual as senior Andrew Schmitt turned in a medalist effort with a 41. In the runner-up spot was sophomore Nick Koch with a 43, while Dane Schott and Nick Buffington closed out scoring with rounds of 44.

NFV boys' golf picks up two UIC wins

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

It was a busy week for the North Fayette Valley boys' golf team, which competed in a pair of tournaments and a pair of Upper Iowa Conference dual meets.

The week started Monday (April 26) as the TigerHawks defeated South Winneshiek, 182-204, at the Warriors' home course in Calmar.

NFV's Dane Schott led the way with a 39, which earned him medalist honors for the dual. Senior Andrew Schmitt earned runner-up honors for the meet, carding a 45.

Nick Koch turned in a round of 48, while Nick Buffington finished with a 50 to lead the team to a victory.

On Tuesday evening (April 27), the TigerHawk boys traveled to Guttenberg to take part in the Clayton Ridge Invitational.

East Buchanan had the best showing as the Buccaneers took first with a 347. Not far behind was North Fayette Valley with a 364, followed by Crestwood in third with a 382. Central placed fourth with a 416, while Clayton Ridge took fifth with a 422.

In the individual standings, Nick Koch earned runner-up honors for the tournament with his impressive round of 86.

Dane Schott carded an 89, while Andrew Schmitt had a 91. The final TigerHawk to contribute was Clay Moser with a 98.

On Thursday afternoon, the TigerHawks earned another UIC win as they defeated MFL/MarMac, 183-197, at Luana.

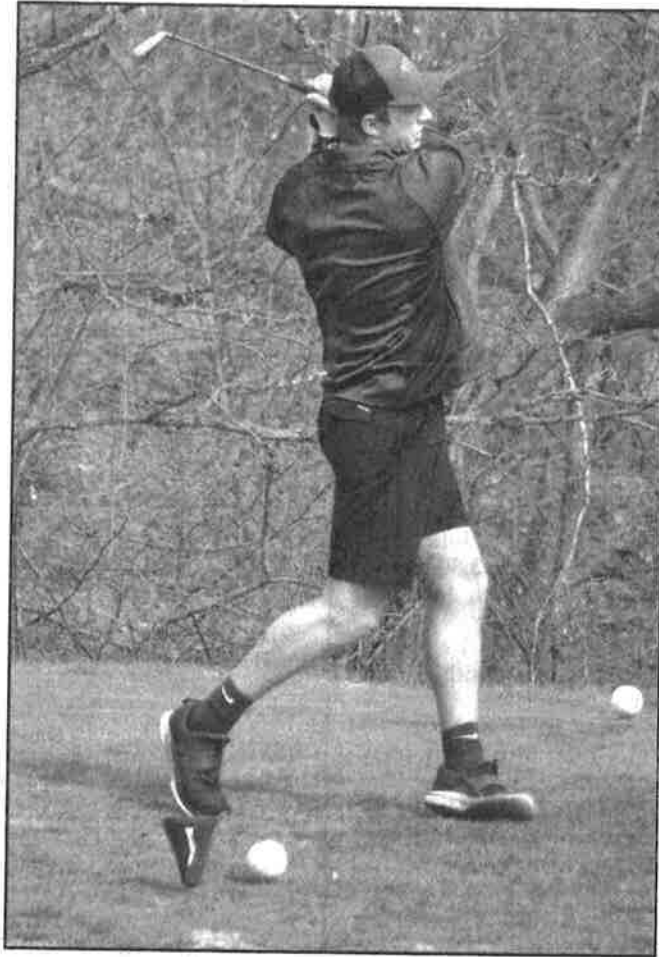

The shorthanded NFV squad took care of business as they were led by medalist Nick Koch (43) and runner-up Andrew Schmitt (46). Both Clay Moser and Nick Buffington finished with rounds of 47 to secure the win and give the TigerHawks the four lowest scores of the meet.

North Fayette Valley closed out the week Saturday as they competed at the Columbus Catholic Invitational, taking fifth amongst a strong field of teams.

"Saturday was a tough tournament in tough conditions," said coach Derek Heins after the event. "The wind was gusting 30 m.p.h. most of the day and the tournament had some of the top teams from Classes 2A and 3A."

NFV turned in a score of 381, which tied it for fifth with Dike-New Hartford. Grundy Center took first at the tournament with a 327.

Leading the way for the TigerHawks was Andrew Schmitt with a strong 86, while Nick Koch also had a strong outing with a 90. Tanner Johnson turned in a round of 98, while Nick Buffington and Clay Moser tied for the fourth contributing score with 107s.

Tanner Johnson grips it and rips it during North Fayette Valley's golf meet against South Winneshiek last week. The NFV boys earned a pair of UIC wins on the week, as well as a second place finish in tournament action. (Zakary Kriener photo)

The TigerHawk boys' golf team took care of business last week, going 3-0 in dual action and picking up an Upper Iowa Conference title on Monday in Calmar.

The week began Monday (May 3) at Pleasant Valley Sports Club as NFV hosted Clayton Ridge.

North Fayette Valley was led by Dane Schott (39) and Nick Koch (42) as it defeated the Eagles, 169-206.

Andrew Schmitt turned in a round of 43, while Nick Buffington rounded out scoring with a 45.

Other TigerHawk varsity golfers included Tanner Johnson (45), Clay Moser (46), Jesse Grimes (58), and Chase Aeschliman (58).

The following day, Tuesday (May 4), North Fayette Valley again picked up the win as Coach Derek Heins led the team to a 169-175 win at home over New Hampton.

NFV's Nick Koch turned in the lowest score for the TigerHawks, finishing with a 41 to take medalist runner-up honors for the meet. Dane Schott carded a 42, while Tanner Johnson and Andrew Schmitt each finished with 43s.

Other NFV golfers included Nick Buffington (48), Grant Stolka (52), Clay Moser (54), Chase Aeschliman (55), Jesse Grimes (57), Lukas Lau (67), and James Baumler (68).

The TigerHawks competed in their final head-to-head meet of the season Thursday as they traveled to Elkader to take on Central.

NFV was again victorious as the team picked up a 173-195 win over the Warriors. Led by medalist Dane Schott (41), the TigerHawks ended the regular season on a positive note. The trio of Andrew Schmitt, Nick Koch, and Tanner Johnson each turned in rounds of 44 to contribute to the win.

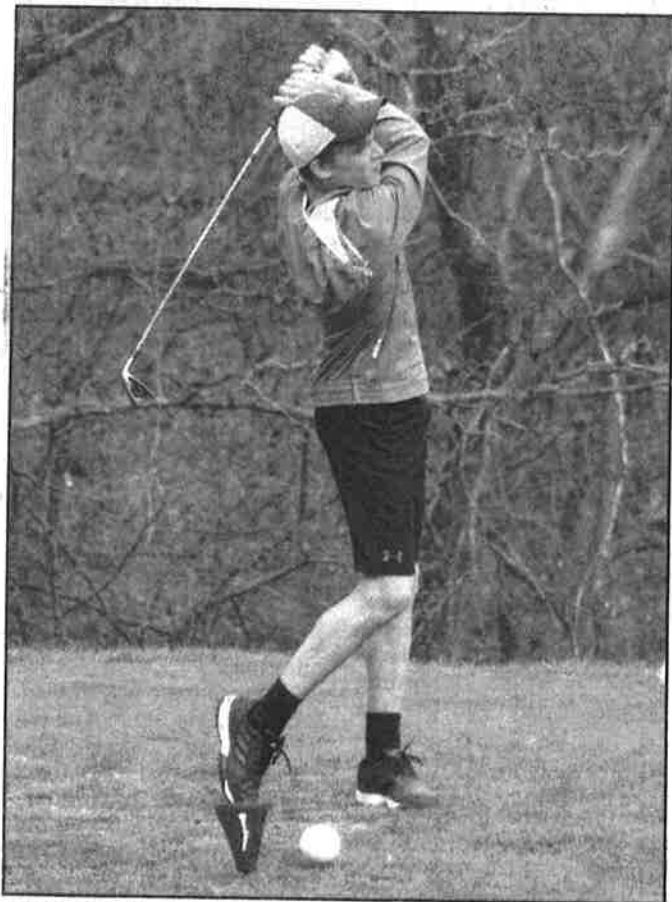

Other NFV scores included Clay Moser (46), Chase Aeschliman (52), Nick Buffington (53), James Baumler (58), and Jesse Grimes (65).

The busy week concluded on Monday afternoon as the TigerHawks capped off a strong season atop the Upper Iowa Conference as the team picked up a decisive win that was 27 strokes lower than runner-up Clayton Ridge.

North Fayette Valley golfers finished in the top four spots, including medalist Nick Koch with an 83 and runner-up Dane Schott with an 86.

Nick Buffington carded an 87, while Andrew Schmitt had an 89, to make for a total score of 345.

Other TigerHawk golfers included Clay Moser (92) and Tanner Johnson (93) - both of whom finished inside the top 12.

NFV's Nick Koch turned in an impressive 18-hole round of 83 at Monday's Upper Iowa Conference Meet in Calmar, earning medalist honors and helping the TigerHawk boys to a first place finish. (Zakary Kriener photo)

NFV boys are Sectional champs!

By ZAKARY KRIENER
zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

Friday was an excellent day for the North Fayette Valley boys' golf team as Pleasant Valley Sports Club played home to the Class 2A Sectional Meet.

After 18 holes of competition, NFV emerged victorious, registering a score of 339. New Hampton took runner-up with 345 strokes, while Columbus Catholic advanced with a 349.

Leading the way for the TigerHawk boys was medalist Tanner Johnson who won a playoff to take the honor of Jersup's Jack Miller. Both finished with rounds of 81.

NFV's Dane Schott finished with a round of 85 to take fifth overall, while Nick Koch carded an 86 to take seventh. Andrew Schmitt rounded out the scoring effort and was ninth with an 87.

Other NFV golfers to compete included Nick Buffington (93) and Clay Moser (95).

The NFV boys will continue their postseason on Friday when they compete in Class 2A Districts at Gates Park Golf Course in Waterloo. Other teams competing will include Beckman Catholic, Cascade, Columbus Catholic, New Hampton, Tipton, and West Branch.

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team headed south to Gates Park Golf Course in Waterloo on Friday as they participated in the Class 2A District Golf Tournament.

Up against both a strong field of competition, as well as rainy and windy conditions, the TigerHawks combined for an 18-hole team total of 364. West Branch took top honors with a 324, while Dyersville Beckman also advanced to State with 339.

Leading the effort for NFV was the duo of Dane Schott and Andrew Schmitt, who each recorded 89s and tied for 23rd.

Tanner Johnson and Clay Moser each carded rounds of 93 to tie for 36th to round out scoring.

Other TigerHawk competitors included Nick Koch (94, 39th) and Nick Buffington (95, 42nd).

The top individuals to compete on Friday were Mikey Takacs of Iowa City Regina and Bob Ryan of Tipton. The two finished four over par (76), but Takacs took medalist honors after a playoff, with Ryan taking the runner-up spot. Both competitors will advance to State this week.
