Comments from Coach Heins

Promising Newcomers/Contributors- Tanner Wilker (freshman), Brayden Kaepfel (senior), Wil Miller, Chase Aeschliman, Jesse Grimes, and James Baumler were all on the team last year, but I look for them to make an impact on varsity. Ryker Cooksley, Carlos Delgado, and Tanner Wilker are also incoming freshmen.

Team Strengths- Three strong returners from last years varsity team should help to anchor the team. Just a matter of how the other golfers develop throughout the season to compete for the remaining varsity spots.

Areas to improve on throughout the season- Every year our focus is to improve on every aspect of the game throughout the season. This year will be no different. It all boils down to who puts in the time to improve week by week and have their best stuff at the end of the year.

Conference Outlook- Clayton Ridge returns most of their team from last year, South Winn is always strong.

Outlook for North Fayette Valley- We should be able to compete for the top spot.

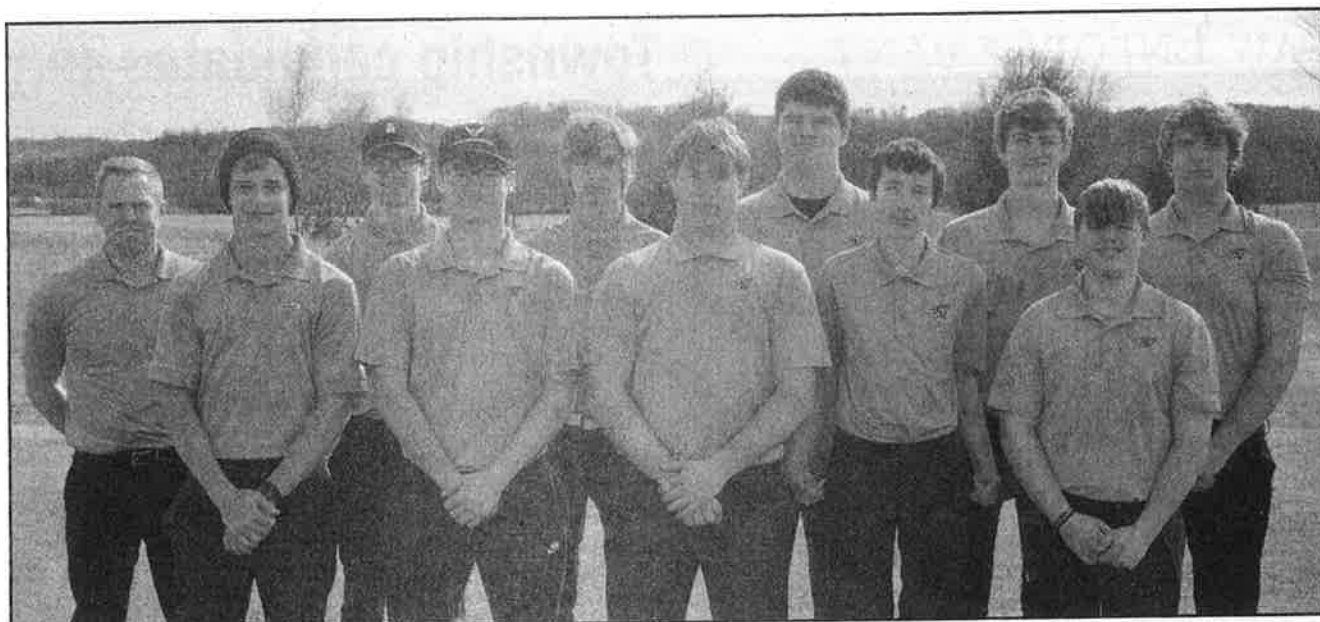

Additional comments- I'm looking forward to the season. Hoping the guys are willing to put in the work and work towards another conference championship and push for the postseason.

NFV golfers top West Central in first meet of '22

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

North Fayette Valley's Nick Buffington led the TigerHawks to a win in the team's first golf meet of the 2022 spring on Monday afternoon in Fayette. Up against West Central, NFV shot 171 as a team while the Blue Devils carded a team total of 208 strokes.

"Congratulations to Nick on medalist honors with a 40," said NFV coach Derek Heins. "This is the first time he has been medalist!"

West Central's Brandon Cushion shot a 41 at Pleasant Valley Sports Club to take runner-up honors.

Also contributing in NFV's win were Wil Miller (42), Clay Moser (44), and Nick Koch (45). Miller carded the only birdie of the meet with his three on the par-four fifth hole.

West Central's team scores included Nathan Dolf (51), Nolan Cushion (57), and Garrison Houge (59).

NFV golf teams goes 2 for 2 against Postville

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

North Fayette Valley had a good day on the course on Tuesday (April 19) as both the boys and girls notched wins over Postville.

Boys

Playing on their home course, Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont, the TigerHawk boys defeated the Pirates, 179-260. The victory was fueled by strong performances by all 10 golfers who competed as they all carded scores that were lower than Postville's top golfer.

Nick Koch earned medalist honors with an impressive 42, which included a birdie on the par-five fourth hole.

Clay Moser and Brayden Kaepfel tied for the runner-up score as they each turned in rounds of 43. Kaepfel also had a birdie in his round with his four on the par-five seventh hole.

Nick Buffington shot a 46 to round out scoring for the TigerHawks.

Other scores for the NFV golfers included the following: Tanner Wilker (48), Carsten Lensing (50), Chase Aeschliman (53), Wil Miller (54 - birdie on the par-three fifth hole), James Baumler (55), and Jesse Grimes (58).

Postville's top golfer for the meet carded a 60 for his round.

Girls

The North Fayette Valley girls were led by Claire Britt's 56 (runner-up) as they defeated Postville by a score of 238-243.

Claire Cummings finished with a 57, while Shae Moncada (60) and Ally Torkelson (65) also contributed to the TigerHawk win. The team's fifth golfer was Kierra Alexander who finished with a round of 76.

"We improved our chipping immensely and just need to get a little more consistent in our scoring - that will come as we play more," said coach Robin Madole. "Out on the course, I saw each NFV player have at least a couple of great shots and we dropped our team score from a 262 in our first meet to a 238 today, that is an improvement!"

Postville's Kathleen Looney earned medalist honors for the meet with her 51.

TigerHawk boys compete at New Hampton quad

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The NFV boys' golf team shot a 393 on Saturday as it participated in a quadrangular meet at New Hampton.

"It was a windy day on Saturday and our scores reflected it," said coach Derek Heins. "We go to New Hampton for Sectionals in a couple weeks, so it was good for the guys to see the course."

The TigerHawks were led by Nick Koch who carded an impressive 90 on the day. Tanner Wilker also shot sub-100 with a 99 as NFV came in behind New Hampton (337) and Denver (347), but ahead of South Winn (393).

"We have some things to work on between now and Sectionals, but we will put in the work and do our best to peak for Conference and Sectionals," added Heins.

Other TigerHawk scores included Clay Moser (100), Nick Buffington (104), and Wil Miller (104).

New Hampton's Adam Ewert took medalist honors with a 79, while Clayton Liddle of Denver was runner-up with an 83.

TigerHawk linksters down Trojans

TigerHawk junior Nick Koch was in top form Thursday as he carded an impressive 41 at Jackson Heights Country Club to lead the NFV boys to a 194-214 win over Turkey Valley. (Zakary Kriener photo)

The NFV golfers kept the momentum going Thursday afternoon with both the boys' and girls' teams earning wins over Turkey Valley. For one of the first times this season, the weather finally felt like spring as the TigerHawks took to the course at Jackson Heights Country Club in Jackson Junction.

Boys

The TigerHawk boys shot a 194 to get a decisive 20-stroke win over the Trojans on their home course.

"It was a great evening for golf," said coach Derek Heins after the meet. "Nicholas Koch played a solid round, shooting 41. The rest of the guys struggled a little but with the speed of the greens and playing the course for the first time."

Koch's round, which came in just five strokes over par for the course, earned him medalist honors.

The freshmen pair of Carsten Lensing (48) and Tanner Wilker (49) each posted sub-50 scores, while Wil Miller and Nick Buffington each had rounds of 52.

Other TigerHawk scores for the day included Clay Moser (55), Chase Aeschliman (57), James Baumler (58), and Jesse Grimes (59).

Turkey Valley's Garrett Kurtenbach finished with a 46 to earn runner-up honors.

Girls

The TigerHawk girls made it two straight wins on the season after defeating the Trojans, 251-258.

"We knew coming in that we lacked some experience in our away meets, but they are making improvements on their club selection and reading greens," said coach Robin Madole on her team's performance. "Claire Cummings shot well tonight and adjusted to the speed of the greens!"

Cummings finished her round with a 54, which gave her the title of medalist for the meet and contributed to the TigerHawk victory.

Claire Britt posted a 60, while Ally Torkelson finished with a 67 and Shae Moncada carded a 70 to round out scoring for NFV. Other scores included a 74 for Abby Chicken and matching 83s for sisters Kierra and Kerigan Alexander.

"Claire, Shae, and Abby ran into a few tough holes, but came through on other holes," added Madole. "Ally Torkelson pulled through with her first time scoring on varsity. Kierra and Kerigan got some experience on an away course which is always tough when you are learning the game of golf and compet-

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team shot an impressive 379 at the 18-hole Clayton Ridge Invitational on Tuesday, April 26. The effort earned the TigerHawks a runner-up finish in the five-team meet.

Leading the way for NFV was Nick Koch who carded an 88. Koch had an impressive 43 on the back nine, which included an eagle on the par-five 18th hole.

Just behind Koch on the North Fayette Valley final score sheet was Clay Moser who had an 89.

Other golfers to compete to the TigerHawk second-place effort were Will Miller (98) and Nick Buntington (104). Tanner Wilker (114) and Brayden Kaepffel (127) also competed for NFV.

Medalist and runner-up honors for the meet both went to East Buchanan golfers as Ben Hesner finished with a 77 and Keaton Kelly had an 86.

The Buccaneers had the low score for the meet with a 342, while Crestwood was third with a 395 and Clayton Ridge was fourth with a 396 and Central was fifth with a 512.

TigerHawk boys bested by Bulldogs

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team took a tough loss on Thursday at Tri City Golf Club (Luana) against the MFL/MarMac Bulldogs.

The TigerHawks kept it close, but ultimately fell by a score of 162-173.

"Next week, MFL (MarMac) host conference on their home course, so it was good to play there and to see what we'll be up against for conference competition," said coach Derek Heins following the meet. "I would expect the conference championship to come down to these two teams. It will take a good week of preparation for our boys to rise to the challenge. We need to continue to work on our short game skills and also the mental approach."

Individual TigerHawk scores were not available at press time.

NFV shoots a 380 at Waterloo Columbus Invite

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The TigerHawk boys' golf team competed at Gates Park Golf Course on Friday in an invitational meet hosted by Waterloo Columbus.

"It was some very good competition," said coach Derek Heins following the action. "Several of these teams will be competing for a State championship in a few weeks. It was good for the boys to play another 18 holes and also beneficial to play against this level of competition."

The TigerHawks shot a 380 for the day and were led by Clay Moser who carded a 85. Teammate Nick Koch was not far behind as he finished with an 89, while Wil Miller Posted a 95. The final contributing scorer was Braeden Kaepfel who finished his round with a 111. Chase Aeschlimen also competed and finished with a 117.

In first place was Grundy Center, which finished with an impressive 310. Other team scores included Hudson (316), Dike-New Hartford (321), Independence (337), and Waterloo Columbus (345).

The North Fayette Valley golf teams took on Clayton Ridge on Monday afternoon, May 2, in Guttenberg.

Paced by Nick Koch's meet-low round of 41, the TigerHawk boys defeated the Eagles, 183-205. NFV also had the runner-up performance for the afternoon as Clay Moser turned in a 42.

Other North Fayette Valley players to contribute to the winning score were Nick Buffington with a 49 and Wil Miller with a 51.

Additional TigerHawk scores included Tanner Wilker (51), Chase Aeschliman (52), Carsten Lensing (54), Brayden Kaepfel (56), and Jesse Grimes (65).

Clayton Ridge had a pair of golfers finish with 50s to lead its team.

The TigerHawk girls shot a combined 261 against CR, but fell by the Eagles' 233.

"We had some penalty strokes added to our team score tonight," admitted coach Robin Madole after the meet. "When we go to other courses, we seem to not adjust to the speed of the greens as well as we should."

North Fayette Valley was led by Claire Britt with a 60 and Ally Torkelson with a 63. With senior Claire Cummings not competing, the TigerHawk scoring effort was rounded out by Shae Moncada's 67 and Abby Chicken's 71.

Other NFV scores for the day included Kerigan Alexander with a round of 74 and Kierra Alexander with a 76.

NFV boys take first, girls second on Senior Night

By ZAKARY KRIENER

zkriener@fayettepublishing.com

The NFV golf teams hosted Central, South Winneshiek, and Waukon at Pleasant Valley Sports Club on Thursday. The TigerHawk boys shot a 177 to take first, while the North Fayette Valley girls finished with a 244 to take second on Senior Night.

With warmer temperatures in the air, along with a 10-15 mph wind throughout the meet, the NFV boys were led by Nick Koch and Clay Moser who each shot rounds of 42 to take medalist honors for the meet. Just a shot off of Koch and Moser was Wil Miller, who carded a 43 to earn runner-up honors.

The final contributing score was from Tanner Wilker who finished with a 50.

Other NFV boys' scores included Carsten Lensing (49), Chase Aeschliman (50), Nick Buffington (51), James Baumler (51), Jesse Grimes (52), and Brayden Kaeppel (58).

South Winneshiek finished second with a 193, while Central shot a 232.

For the NFV girls, it was senior Claire Cummings who finished with a 56 to lead the team. Other contributing scores included Shae Moncada (62), Claire Britt (63), and Ally Torkelson (63).

"We finally had a great night to play without stocking caps," laughed coach Robin Madole following the meet. "Claire Cummings was our low ace tonight and finished just out of the medaling. She has been one of our leaders all year and is one of our co-captains."

Other scores included Abby Chicken and Kierra Alexander who each finished with rounds of 73.

"This night was not only about our last home meet, but for all of our seniors on the NFV girls' and boys' teams," closed Madole. "We really appreciate all of the people that came out to support both teams. This team has been most enjoyable."

South Winneshiek

took first with a 227, while Central was third with a 245. Waukon had one individual compete and did not qualify a team score.

The TigerHawk boys competed at conference on Monday; however, results were not available at press time. They will head to New Hampton on Wednesday for Sectionals.

The NFV girls competed in their conference meet on Tuesday at South Winn, but results were not available. The team will head to Dike on Friday for Sectionals.

The North Fayette Valley boys' golf team shot a 387 to take runner-up honors at the 2022 Upper Iowa Conference Meet on Monday (May 9). The TigerHawks battled the wind and seven other conference teams at the 18-hole meet, which was played at Tri-City Golf Course in Luana.

The TigerHawks were led by Nick Koch who carded an 89 and registered the fourth-best round of the meet. Just behind him was Clay Moser who finished with a 98.

Nick Buffington was NPV's third golfer to finish under 100 as he turned in a 98 on his scorecard.

The final TH golfer to contribute to the team score was Wil Miller who had a 108.

Tanner Wilker and Braeden Kaepfel also competed for the TigerHawks as they each finished with rounds of 109.

Meet host MFL/MarMac won the UIC title as the Bulldogs shot a 353 on their home course.

Boys' team results

1. MFL/MarMac, 353; 2. North Fayette Valley, 387; 3. South Winneshiek, 307; 4. Turkey Valley, 410; 5. Clayton Ridge, 420; 6. West Central, 442; 7. Postville, 455; 8. Central, 513.

North Fayette Valley junior Nick Koch led the TigerHawks to a runner-up finish at the Upper Iowa Conference Meet last week. Koch finished his 18-hole round with a 89, which was key in the team's 387-stroke performance. (Zakary Kriener photo)

North Fayette Valley junior Clay Moser closed out his 2022 golf season Monday (May 16) at Districts, which was held at Heritage Oaks Golf and Country Club in Wapello.

Moser carded a 107 in his 18-hole round, which would end up being his final round of the season.

"Clay didn't have his best stuff and struggled at Heritage Oaks," said coach Derek Heins following the meet. "The course had some tight holes where he lost some balls in penalty areas and just couldn't get anything going. Hopefully he learned something from the experience and uses it as a stepping stone for next year!"

The top individual on the leader board was Dyersville Beckman's Nate Offerman, who finished with a 76. West Branch claimed the top team spot with a 325, while Dyersville Beckman also advanced to State with a 326.
