With a pair of home meets last week, the North Fayette Valley boys added two more wins to its 2024 resume. The TigerHawks defeated Turkey Valley on Monday, April 15, and then followed it up with a win over Central on Friday.

The victory over the Trojans was headed by Blake Everitt's round of 42, which was second-best of the day. Peyton Loftsgard (43), Cole Moser (43), and Tanner Wilker (45) also contributed in the 173-189 win, while Carsten Lensing (49) and Tate Germann (62) were also in action.

"It was a perfect night for golf," said coach Derek Heins after the meet. "We continue to make improvements in scoring, but there are still several things to address."

The boys competed again Friday afternoon as it added another win by a score of 172-208 over the visiting Central Warriors. Tanner Wilker shot a 40 and Peyton Loftsgard had a 41 to sweep the medalist and runner-up medalist honors, while Blake Everitt's 45 and Cole Moser's 46 completed the scoring. Also competing were Carsten Lensing and Tate Germann, who finished with 47 and 58, respectively.

The TigerHawk spayed Monday at South Winn and Tuesday at Clayton Ridge; however, results were not available at press time.

The team will be off the rest of the week before resuming action Monday at Postville.

While the North Fayette Valley boys' team season came to an end last week at Sectionals on Wednesday (May 8), the season remains alive for sophomore Cole Moser who carded a 76 to advance as an individual and keep his hopes of qualifying for State alive.

"Cole played steady golf both rounds, shooting a 37 and 39 - which was his best golf of the year," said coach Derek Heins following the meet, which was hosted by NFV at Pleasant Valley Sports Club in Clermont. "He did a good job of playing his own game and staying out of trouble. He also made some clutch putts."

Moser's round of 76 was tied for fifth lowest of the meet, which was won by Aplington-Parkersburg with a combined 297. Runner-up Osage finished with 300 as both teams advanced to Sectionals this week, while the TigerHawks shot 348 as a team to finish sixth out of the eight teams in competition.

"As a team, we had our best nine holes of the year the first nine and were positioned as good as we could be," continued Heins on the team performance. "The second nine was a different story, with several of the boys running into trouble on a couple holes and not able to keep the momentum going."

Other varsity scorers for the TigerHawks included Peyton Loftsgard with an 88 and both Blake Everitt and Tanner Wilker with 92s. Both Tate Germann and Carsten Lensing finished their rounds with 93.

"I'm looking forward to see what Cole can do the rest of the way (this week)," said Heins, referring to the Sectional Meet that was held Tuesday at Dike-New Hartford (results not available at press time). "We will have a solid group returning next season as well and I'm excited about what we have ahead of us as a team."

North Fayette Valley's Cole Moser wrapped up his impressive sophomore season last week at Districts, missing the cut to advance to State by just three shots.

"Cole played another steady round of golf, marred by just a few three-putts on some challenging hole locations," said coach Derek Heins after Tuesday's (May 14) action at Fox Ridge Golf Course in Dike. "He had one birdie on the day and several nice par saves late in the round."

Moser placed 15th overall with a 78 on the day.

"Cole should be very pleased with how he progressed this year and especially how he played when it mattered most," closed Heins. "He and the rest of the underclassmen are looking forward to playing a lot this summer and building for next year."

The TigerHawks will potentially return nearly its entire varsity lineup next spring with only two seniors on this year's team, Peyton Loftsgard and Mitchell Bohr.
